HA were....

I can't argue with you, you must meet an objection laborer. but disclaimed the us to objection of the PNC.

Then contacted him at night:
took him to cheap restaurant.
He had never been there he said because he wasn't a laborer, but on long run; it 2nd year was that people seeing if food to were black, & he didn't feel it he wanted to be served by blacks, I persuaded him to come, & I suspect he was a bit black with it & maybe. No one turned -hair.

~~He id to me:~~

One day he contacted me & asked to come to my house. So I came at about 9.30 p.m. - was arrived & about 10 people arrived, apparently the PNC executive, & I whites, & they sat & talked throughout the evening. A photo taken of the

They had to at Dr. King's home - I said I'd see it to be sure - you've to see & you must take these people to an up meeting.

It turned out to be a debate between me & the MC. Sol. did not say much. At a certain pt I demanded: "Do you hope to overthrow the govt? They said yes. Me: if ~~any~~ is here does you hope to overthrow the govt if it any is white, unless you withdraw from the war too? At this stage I demanded they had never thought about it any as a fact - it's a solid fact.
I referred to the plentiful literature about the role of the army in revolutions & gave them 2 works:

Antonio Gramsci's The Anatomy of Revolution to Kate Chopin: James & the Art of Revolution, & James + the Whiskey reference to the army.

As there was a breakdown of discussion; they had no framework of reference in regard to what I was saying.

about 3/4 month later, when they were busy with Hobbs campaign, I ~~just~~ ^{trapped} ~~to~~ ^{trapped} ~~went~~ fell out camp, I asked if the had looked at it before, I had give him. He said they were far too busy.
