

Moscow.

3/xii/25 116

Dear Mamie.

You no doubt have received my last letter sent through Mrs. Sundetoff. I hope you have got the £10- sent you through Arcos Bank.

To day I sent you another £10- through Arcos Bank. You say that you do not get often letters. I keep writing every week & answer all your letters. It would be useless writing every day, & I really have very little time now. I have to prepare for my work and have to read while I do. I received your last letter with your ap. (what for?)

I know that you have not lost any money in cards. What have you paid Papa £10- for? I hope you had your teeth done well. Do not worry. When you are in need you will always have plenty of time to worry, but at present there is no cause for any worry. I am glad you have some one even if temporary I am sure if I were there I would have got some one long ago, but of course you are quite right. I know so many people & people know me. However you might get some one yet & if not well you cant help it. I have not received the fountain pens yet, nor any gloves, nor has that gentleman received the ladies costume, I could have gone & brought the thing myself by now.

Perhaps you will get this letter in time to send me these things with the man who is now staying with you if he is going to Moscow soon.

At present I am feeling very well. The weather is lovely, Snow up to your knees & fine.

What sort of weather have you now in London?

They keep on calling me away while I am writing this letter so I do not know what I have said & what I have left out.

I think I'd better finish now & will write later.

I hope the children are keeping well & are kind to you & to each other.

Fond love to you all will write to Hilda separate another day.

 Love Sam

Moscow

3/XII/25

16

Dear Mamie.

You no doubt have received my last letter sent through Mrs Sundukoff & I hope you have got the £10- sent you through Arcos Bank.

Today I sent you another £10- through Arcos Bank. You say that do not get often letters. I keep writing every week & answer all your letters. It would be useless writing every day, & I really have very little time now. I have to prepare for my work and have to read which I do. I received your last letter with your a/c. (What for?) I know that you have not lost any money in cards. What have you paid Roper £10-for? I hope you had your teeth done well. Do not worry when you are in need you will always have plenty of time to worry, but at present there is no cause for any worry. I am glad you have some one even if temporary I am sure if I were there I would have got some one long ago, but of course you are quite right I know so many people & people know me. However you might get some one yet & if not well you cant help it. I have not received the fountain pens yet, nor any gloves, nor has that gentleman received the ladies costume. I could have gone & bought the things myself by now.

Perhaps you will get this letter in time to send me these things with the man who is now staying with you if he is going to Moscow soon.

At present I am feeling very well. The weather is lovely, snow up to your knees & fine. What sort of weather have you now in London? They keep on calling me away while I am writing this letter so I do not know what I have said and what I have left out. I think I'd better finish now & will write later.

I hope the children are keeping well & are kind to you & to each other.

Fond love to you all. Will write to Hilda separate another day.

Love Sam

Collection Number: A3299

Collection Name: Hilda and Rusty BERNSTEIN Papers, 1931-2006

PUBLISHER:

Publisher: Historical Papers Research Archive

Collection Funder: Bernstein family

Location: Johannesburg

©2015

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the Hilda and Rusty Bernstein Papers, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.