The Gen Secretary I.C.U.,
24 Raop Street -
Calcutta

Sir

I received your communication dated the 30th ult. I was surprised that you did not enclose my money as requisitioned for. I do not understand how you deal with his branch. Today is the fourth day of the month I have not yet received any money. It has put difficulties in my way as I wanted to leave this office and go to a new place where I have leased the Hall. It will be impossible to do that under the circumstances. You know Mr Madama had a general complaint that his requisitions are not attended to in time. I hope you will send me the money as soon as you can.

Yours faithfully
A. G. Chatterjee
