Mr. J.B. Seering 1st January 1956 but Bethany decided to remain here Dear Comrades

I can see you will remember that I promised mother Seering one photograph but sent a man to take them out of the photo grapher he did not leave one for which I was sorry

Please give her this one

I will also be glad if you will hand one to one to Solomon Danne and I believe he paid his money. You know Mr. Seering only 3 or 4 persons who paid for these photos, all others ran away. I have paid for all and they are there as I did not want that school and keep my name to the European photo grapher. I wish you all a Happy New Year with all other Comrades at Black Point

I also wish the Mrs a Happy New year with the little children I was thinking of attending the meeting of the 1st January 1950 but I have decided to remain here as the work is too much for me and I can not leave my one behind yours Comradely
