Dear Bertha,

Very many thanks for your letter of the 28th march. I have been unable to reply to you earlier, owing to pressure of work.

Thank you for handing an invitation to Mrs.
Lavoipierre. I have written to her to-day, inviting her to attend the Conference, or if that is not possible, asking for a message.

Unfortunately, you do not include the addresses of the women on the list you sent, so could I ask you to be good enough to forward the invitations, which I am including herewith? If I delay and await the addresses from you, it will be too late for me to send them out.

Thank you once again for your efforts on behalf of the Conference.

With best wishes.

Ra. Alice du P.

WORLD YOUTH DAY COMMITTEE.

ANCYL,(TVL), TIYC, COD(YOUTH) SLA.

4 Kort Street,
Johannesburg.

19th October, 1954.

Dear Friends,

On Wednesday 10th November, young people in every country of the world will gather to celebrate WORLD YOUTH DAY. They will meet at sports and cultural festivals, picnics, rallies and meetings to express their great joy about ^{the} anniversary that has become so dear and close to them - for on the 10th of November it will be the 9th Anniversary of the founding of the WORLD FEDERATION OF DEMOCRATIC YOUTH.

To us in South Africa, as indeed to young people all over the world, the WFDY is no longer a remote organisation. It has increasingly ^{become} part and parcel of our every day lives. In the World Youth Festivals that it regularly organises, in the Conferences for the Defence of Youth Rights, the Rural Youth Gatherings, in the various solidarity campaigns with anti-Franco Youth and Youth struggling against colonialism the WFDY has endeared itself in the hearts of millions. The presence of the Secretary-General of the African National Congress, Mr Sisulu at the 4th World Festival organised by the WFDY as a guest of honour is still fresh in our memories.

Therefore South African youth will once again join with the young people all over the world in celebrating WORLD YOUTH DAY.

Two important functions have been arranged:

Firstly, there will be a

M E E T I N G.

on WEDNESDAY 10th NOVEMBER at 7.30 p.m. at 4 KORT STREET, JOHANNESBURG.

Speakers will include Miss Ruth First, recently returned from the Council meeting of the WFDY held in Peking. The programme includes refreshments, music, records, choirs etc.

Secondly, ON SUNDAY 14th NOVEMBER there will be an

A L L - D A Y P I C N I C.

near Johannesburg. The participation fee will be 5/-

More information can be obtained from any of the 4 sponsoring organisations.

We appeal to you to begin NOW for the success of these functions.

Yours for Peace and Friendship,

for ANCYL, TIYC,
