Dear Alan

We were very proud to read that the Freedom Award for 1960 has gone to you. My work with students and the political realities of South Africa today make me feel that nothing matters so much as freedom. Apart from the God of grace in whose hands we leave the future freedom cannot be. You make that so very plain and I hope that next year you will come & tell us more at Wits. We were thinking of asking you to speak on Christian Nationalism as a valid commitment, but now that you are going to USA that will have to wait. You like the States don't you: I would love to pay a visit there.

Best wishes from Vida & me

Yours ever

I haven't forgotten the cheque but am still waiting on 2 students.
