

I wish, on behalf of myself and my colleagues of the banned
P.A.C. to extend my heartfelt appreciation for the great honour bestowed upon me, a small man both in mind and body, to the sponsors of this gathering for having invited me in the first instance and in asking me to speak on the most controversial issue in our S.A. political polemics.

It is indeed, I do not hesitate to say, because of the historic role that our banned P.A.C. played almost 10 months ago in our positive decisive action against white domination and in their campaign against the Pass Laws that we were invited and that the sponsors of this conference asked me to speak on the Pass Laws. It is indeed a great honour to my President and to my banned Org. It is for that reason that I accepted the call to attend and to speak on this subject.

Collection Number: AD2183

Collection Name: Pan Africanist Congress (PAC), records

PUBLISHER:

Publisher: Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand

Location: Johannesburg

©2016

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document forms part of the archive of the South African Institute of Race Relations (SAIRR), held at the Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.