BASUTOLAND.

Dear Madam,

I wonder whether I may ask for your assistance in regard to the three Sobukwe children who are at your hostel? I am enclosing my cheque for R3.00 (plus bank exchange), and would greatly appreciate it if you could use this money for regular pocket-money for the children. As a fourth child -- Dini -- is at school elsewhere in Basutoland, I would also be grateful if Miliswe could be allowed to use some of the money to give to him. Should more money be required at any stage, please do not hesitate to let me know.

I trust that this request will not cause you any difficulties, and that it will be possible to carry it out.

I am also enclosing a letter for Miliswe. Could this please be handed to her? Her mother is celebrating her 40th birthday next week and I know that Miliswe is anxious to share in the occasion. Could she perhaps be allowed some of the money I am enclosing so as to send her mother a greetings telegram, or even a gift if she would like to do this?

Thanking you for your help.

Yours sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGURUD
