DO NOT SPEND YOUR MONEY SAYS PHOEBE

SAVE IT IN THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK

The Bank Money Calves Like
Cows And There Is No Risk Of
It Being Stolen Or Getting Lost
In Other Ways

Get Rid Of The Hoarding System

There are Africans who believe in burying their money instead of putting it in the Bank. They do not believe that money put in the bank is safer than that buried in the ground, or kept in their houses. And yet there is more risk in hoarding money than in banking it.

But happily the prejudice against the Bank, which to some extent is due to the distrust on the part of the Africans of the white man's honesty, is gradually disappearing. According to "The Star" Africans employed by the Municipality of Johannesburg are giving up hoarding their money and beginning to bank it at the Post Office.

"About 18 months ago we decided to try to persuade the Natives of the Solomon Street municipal compound to use the post office savings bank," the secretary of the organisation, Mr. A. Jonker, said in an interview. We went there just after they received their pay and pointed out to them, in a way they could understand, exactly why one should put one's savings in a bank. We told them that in a bank money would calve exactly like a cow, and that in a bank there was no chance of loss from the cow or the calf's dying as they so often do in real life. Then, again, they need not look after the cow, and, finally, when they needed money, they would not have to look high and low for someone who was willing to buy their beasts and give them money in exchange.

"They began to contribute in quite a small way, and gradually the idea spread and the weekly contribution of the compound rose so that we received over £1,200 from it in the course of last year alone. Then we started on the Beek Street compound, which gave £800, and the City Deep compound, which gave £855 from the beginning of May, and, finally, the Village Deep compound, which gave £102 in its first three months. This year the contributions are far higher than they were 12 months ago.

"There is one difficulty. As the Native labourers have no time to come to the post office, we have to go to them, on pay days, and collect savings on the spot. They have come to trust me, for instance, and I have no difficulty in persuading them of the benefit of banking their money with the post office, where it earns 3 per cent. a year. If I were suddenly withdrawn, however, without time to introduce my successor, and the post office sent along someone else, they would conclude I have made my pile and gone and the new man would get a very cold reception."

The Native Affairs Department of the City Council, which has charge of 7,500 compound Natives, thoroughly approves of the spread of banking ideas among the Natives, owing to the ease with which their money is lost or stolen when they save by hoarding.

and "tiokeys" and often a good deal more, and the teachers jotted down their contributions and put the money into post office savings bank certificates.

The children began caddy on golf courses with greater enthusiasm, to sell old bottles, and try out every other method of raising a little ready cash for Monday morning. Their parents got interested, and did their utmost to help them; birthday presents were invested, and odd sixpences from benevolent unless passed into teacher's hands.

Finally, when the adjudicators examined the results of the six Native schools which entered for the Corlett Cup, they found that St. Peter's had obtained 96 savings certificates at 16/- each, and that 150 of the 300 children were members of the savings club. St. Peter's won the cup, and Mr. Handel Thompson and Mr. Maggs came down to the school on Monday to present it.

Native Development Fund

Follow Phoebe's Example
And Save Money
For Rainy Days

Phoebe Mzimba, a ten-year old African girl of St Peter's School, Crown Mines, won the prize on an essay on Thrift. The competition was open to all children between the ages of 7 and 14, and is in connection with the Loan Certificate school groups. A similar competition for senior is conducted. In 1933 the prizes were won by this same school.

Mr. D. R. Twala, Secretary of Bantu Sports Club. See story on page 18.

The St. Peter's School formed Loan Certificate school thrift group in March 1933. Before that date, the school had what is known as the Penny Bank. In the Penny Bank system the collective interest of the money banked by the scholars goes to the school, but in the Loan Certificate system each child gets interest on its deposits. The school deserves praise because in 1934 out of some 308 children on enrolment 150 are in the thrift scheme, and of these 50 hold Loan Certificate amounting to £75. Little Phoebe also brought the thrift trophy to the school. The Treasurer of the St. Peter's Thrift Group is Mrs. M. A. Monala, and the Secretary Mrs. M. Mzimba.

Phoebe had the greatest day of her life on Monday. Mr. F. Handel Thompson, a member of the Provincial Council, handed her a silver cup for the thriftiest Native school on the Rand, in the presence of the Postmaster of Johannesburg, Mr. L. B. Maggs, and her 300 school-mates at St Peter's School Crown Mines.

Phoebe is on paper the thriftiest child in St. Peter's and that is saying a good deal. Not quite two years ago the Witwatersrand National Thrift Organisation decided to introduce thrift propaganda into Native schools, and recently Mr. D. F. Corlett gave a fine silver cup as a floating trophy for the thriftiest school each year.

St. Peter's went in for the idea with enthusiasm. Every Monday the pupils came to their teachers with coppers

Mr. Havenga's Concession

In the House of Assembly on Wednesday the Minister of Finance, Mr. N. C. Havenga in the course of his Budget speech which reveals the fact that since Generals Hertzog and Smuts agreed to work together the country has recovered remarkably from depression, said that the Minister of Native Affairs, Mr. P. G. W. Grobler, had pointed out the desirability of exempting Natives who have reached an age at which the earning capacity began to fall off from rendering a return.

The Government, he said, had approved of this and proposals would be submitted to the House to exempt Natives who had reached the age of 65, or who, in the opinion of the Receiver of Revenue, had reached that age from payment of the personal tax.

Referring to the Native Development Fund, the Minister said this fund consisted of an annual grant of £340,000 from the exchequer, plus one-fifth of the personal tax on Natives. Although the revenue was derived solely from the Union taxation, it was mainly devoted by the provinces to the education of Natives. The Government had decided to adopt the policy that eventually two-fifths of the personal tax would be devoted to the fund instead of one-fifth as at present. During the following financial year an additional amount of £170,000 would be paid to the fund and thereafter two-fifths.

Mr. Leslie Hutchinson, another famous Negro singer whose gramophone records will be played at the B.M. S.C. on March 1.

agriculture so as to assist their own people. By demonstration and co-operation they would grow better crops and use their lands better, while their industrial training would assist the community towards obtaining better homes. He emphasised that these lads would go back to their reserves and build up a civilisation.

Coloured Youths In Free State

JOINT COUNCIL URGES
BUILDING OF SCHOOLS FOR CHILDREN

At the meeting of the European-Coloured Joint Council held at Bloemfontein last week-end, the Rev. H. Devis said that there were some 1,550 Coloured children attending schools in the Free State, 900 of whom were in separate schools and the remainder in Native schools. The Coloured schools in the Free State were regularly inspected by the Native Education Department and reports were submitted from time to time to the managers, principals and school committees. The Administration was therefore fully aware of the state of affairs regarding Coloured education.

Dealing with the question of school buildings, Mr. Devis said that, through the work of Mr. H. E. G. Kuschke, chief inspector for Native education, some schools had been built by the municipalities. He pointed out, however, that the Provincial Administration would not incur expenditure on Coloured school buildings, while the Town Council of Bloemfontein would not expend anything on buildings as they contended that it was the duty of the Education Department to do so. As a result of this Coloured children in Bloemfontein were crowded into a tin shanty that had been condemned by school inspectors and the medical inspector of schools as unfit for human habitation.

He stated that there should be compulsory education for all Coloured children between the ages of 7 and 15 years and a full-time attendance officer should be appointed for the Free State. Mr. Devis proposed that the Government should subsidise Coloured education and build schools wherever needed, and that the scale of salaries in the Free State should be brought into line with those of the Cape Province. Finally, he suggested, central secondary schools should be established at Bloemfontein and Kroonstad, pupils to be aided by the Coloured people in all parts of the Free State.

Pressmen Visit Domboshawa.

Last Monday the Imperial Press Conference delegates, who are now touring Southern Rhodesia, visited the Government Native School at Domboshawa, about 20 miles from Salisbury, where they were keenly interested in the nature of the instructions given to African pupils.

Domboshawa Government School for Africans has now 260 pupils and in addition is training 29 agricultural demonstrators and 13 community demonstrators. The whole of the afternoon and till well after 1 o'clock was spent on this visit, which was particularly interesting to the overseas visitors. An inspection was made of the school rooms and the sections for the management of stock, forestry, carpentry, ironwork brick-making, road-making, fencing and irrigation work.

Mr. J. E. H. Mylne, M.A., the Principal, told the delegates that the scholars were particularly trained in (Continued at foot of previous column)

The Governor-General To Visit Lovedale

Ashanti Natives And Restoration Of Golden Stool

The Golden Stool and the ancient office of Asantehene have been restored to the Ashanti people. The ceremony took place in Kumasi, and was the occasion for the largest gathering of Ashanti chiefs seen in recent years.

At the end of the 17th century some signs of civilisation began to appear out of chaos in the country now known as Ashanti. The genius of one man, Okomfo Anokyi, priest and Prime Minister of a tribal chief named Osei Tutu imposed order, created organisation, and founded the Ashanti confederacy.

Anokyi persuaded his chief to found the town of Kumasi as the capital of the Ashanti confederacy, and to unite all the minor political "stools" of his day under the supreme control of the Golden Stool. Ever since that time this Golden Stool has been accepted as the symbol, as the outward form, of the soul of the Ashanti nation.

The power of this new confederacy steadily developed during the 18th century, but the necessity of providing trade avenues to the coast involved the Ashantis in frequent and violent warfare with the coastal tribes, and European missionaries and merchants often suffered in the conflict.

Unfortunate incidents led to the invasion of Ashanti by a British force under Sir Garnet Wolseley in 1874, and to the second Ashanti Expedition of 1895. This was followed in 1900 by the Ashanti revolt, which led to the arrest and deportation of the Asantehene, Prempeh, I, and to the annexation of the country. In 1924 Prempeh was allowed to return from exile and to occupy the position of Kumasiene in the Native administration. He died in 1931.

The ancient Ashanti confederacy, in its origin mainly military and intermittent, will now be converted into a civil administration with regular administrative and judicial functions, working under the immediate supervision of the British Chief Commissioner in Kumasi, subject to the authority of the Governor of the Gold Coast.

Indiscriminate Use Of Firearms Rebuke by Magistrate

As a sequel to a shooting affair in which an African, Phule, was shot in the leg, Jacobus Cornelius Gideon Burger, of the farm Kaalspruit, appeared before Mr. C. E. Stidolph, magistrate, at Pietersburg on February 13, on a charge of assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm.

Phule said that he was in his lands in Moletsies location when Burger shouted, "Come here" Burger immediately fired, but the shot went wide. A second shot struck the ground near him. He then started running, when a third shot struck him in the leg.

Two Africans witnesses gave similar testimony.

Detective W. G. Beetge, who investigated the case, said he found four spent cartridges at the scene of the alleged shooting. Evidence was given that Phule was in hospital for two and a half weeks.

In sentencing Burger to a fine of £15 a month the Magistrate said, "There is far too much indiscriminate use of firearms in regard to Natives. There have been several cases in the courts lately where Natives have either lost their lives or the use of their limbs through being fired at by Europeans, and it is high time Europeans realised that they cannot expect to use weapons indiscriminately without having to pay the penalty if an incident of this sort happens."

Bantus Thwarting Their own Progress

WHEN WILL AFRICANS STOP THIS VIOLENCE?

A number of culpable homicide charges were dealt with by two courts at the Witwatersrand Criminal Sessions on February 20. The men involved were all Africans. The sentences ranged from a fine of £3 (or four months imprisonment with hard labour) to four years' imprisonment with hard labour and five lashes.

Philemon Hlola admitted stabbing an African woman named Jane Mgangane, on December 25, at Jupiter, but said she provoked him.

Mr. Justice Solomon said he thought it was a case of a drunken quarrel and he made a good deal of allowance for this as also for the fact that this would be the first time Philemon had been sentenced; but apparently it was a very savage assault.

The sentence was six lashes and 12 months imprisonment with hard labour.

"He swore at me and I got cross," said Okay Mdhlangamandha, "and I hit him. I was very cross and I could not keep it."

The charge on this case was one of killing Johannes Palo another African on November 25, near Klipspruit.

Mr. Justice Solomon said the case was a really bad one, and passed sentence of four years' imprisonment with hard labour and five lashes.

"I HIT HIM."

A similar sentence was passed on Charlie Makonasi, who was charged with assaulting, on November 19, 1934, David Mahomed, a coloured man, by stabbing him, so that he died later, Charlie said: "I did hit him, and he died." When told that he had a previous conviction for culpable homicide, he said: "I am a doctor, and in 1931 I gave a man some medicine and he died."

Munya Zepe, who assaulted Tesi Randi on January 5 in the West Rand compound, so that the man died, was fined £3 (or four months' imprisonment with hard labour), being given time in which to pay the fine.

Before Mr. Justice Barry and a jury, Jim Mtetwa was charged with assaulting Mathew Abdula, another African, with intent to murder, it being alleged that he fired a revolver at Mathew.

A unanimous verdict of not guilty was returned.

Mr. I. A. Maisels (instructed by Mr. L. W. Ritch) appeared for the defence.

Alphus Mkwana, an African of Doornfontein, appeared before Mr. Justice Barry on a charge of culpable homicide, it being alleged that on November 3, 1934, he assaulted another African named Johannes with a stick, so that he died.

Non-Europeans on The Railways

DEPRESSION WAGE "CUTS" MUST NOW CEASE TO OPERATE

In Capetown, at a meeting of non-European railwaymen the following resolution was unanimously passed:

"That the attention of the Minister of Railways and Harbours be drawn to the existing position of non-European employed in the railway and harbour services. During the recent depression a reduction of 6d a day was made in the wages of employees receiving 4/6 a day, and there are cases of employees who are in receipt of 8/6 a day being reduced to 4/6 a day.

"We join with the non Europeans employed at Port Elizabeth, East London, Durban, Kimberley and other places in seeking some relief from the present intolerable position. In spite of the increase of prosperity which has accrued to the railway and harbour services, no step has yet been taken to restore the former position so far as non-Europeans are concerned.

We would point out to the Minister that the cost of living has increased considerably during the past year, and consequently we are suffering additional handicaps in our efforts to preserve a decent standard of living.

"We are glad to learn that consideration has been given to our European fellow-workers, and it is in no carping spirit that we draw attention to our own unfortunate position.

"We would ask, therefore, as a measure of common justice that the 'cuts' in wages we sustained during the depression now cease to operate and that the former position be restored."

Lord Clarendon And Native Institutions

The Governor-General has announced that he will visit Lovedale to commemorate the jubilee of his Majesty the King, a jubilee trophy to be competed for at annual sports between Fort Hare, Lovedale, Healdtown, Fort Cox, and St. Mathew's Colleges. The college that secures the most points for winning events will receive the trophy and hold it for one year.

The colleges will compete for the first at the sports to held on March 16, which will be attended by the delegates to the Imperial Press Conference.

Trades And Labour Council To Investigate About Pick-up Vans

The assistance of the Trade and Labour Council in the campaign against the use by the police of the "pick-up van" has been asked by an association formed to deal with this matter.

In reply to a request by the council for further information, a statement has been drawn alleging maltreatment. These vans patrol in and near the Native townships and locations on the Reef, it is stated, and swoop down on groups of non-Europeans.

The Trades and Labour Council will investigate the matter, and in the meantime has passed a resolution expressing its sympathy with the object of the association in attempting to prevent maltreatment of non-Europeans.

Refused Licence In his own location

At the last sitting of the Reitz Licensing Board an application was made by an African residing in the location for a hawkers licence. The Town Council instructed Messrs Roussouw and Roussouw to appear on behalf of the Council to have the application set aside.

Mr. Roussouw stated in his plea that section 22 (b) of Act No. 21 of 1923, as amended by Act No. 25 of 1930, gave a local urban authority the power to prohibit hawking or peddling within a location under its charge, without specifically promulgating regulations to that effect.

Subsequently a reply was received from the Secretary for Native Affairs that the interpretation placed by the Municipal Council on the provisions of the sections was correct, and, further that the Council would in this respect, appear to have the common law right of a landlord against trespassers on his property or holding.

The application for a licence was refused by the Licensing Board.

NEEDLE AND THREAD

Lace Collar And Cuffs

Surely everyone will agree that this is a very smart and pretty way of trimming a dark winter dress. Coats' Mercer-Crochet Cotton is so strong that the set will last for years with careful washing and ironing. The directions in the pattern below tell us to use navy blue ribbon for the bands but of course other colours can be used.

For instance if it was to wear with a red dress then red bands to match would be the correct thing. Whatever colour is chosen for the ribbon it would be wise to wash a small sample of it first to make sure that it is good ribbon and the dye does not wash out otherwise it would spoil the white crochet work.

Lace Collar And Cuffs

Materials required: 3 Balls (20 gram) coats' Mercer-Crochet or 6 " (10 gram) coats' No. 3s, White coats' No. 3s, White

Frightening Children

The terror that walks by night is a very real almost tangible, thing to the nervous, sensitive child. It causes much mental suffering, and is often extremely difficult to allay.

But why is it there? Why is a child afraid of the dark? Why does he peep at with fantastic monsters ready to leap upon him unawares? Why does he start up in his sleep and scream with fear.

These are the questions which the mother of such a child must ask herself. And not only ask, but to which she must find the answer if he is to be cured. In ninety-nine cases out of every hundred it will be found that suggestion is at the root of the evil.

For instance, a normal, healthy child goes as placidly to sleep in the dark as in the light, till some stupid person remarks, "I will leave the door open, so you needn't be afraid."

This being repeated on several occasions, the idea is implanted that there is something to fear. The seed grows till with some children it becomes a regular terror.

Equally harmful are the silly stories told by unthinking people of a "bogeyman" who pounces out on naughty children. Or, again, night terrors may be suggested by the telling of unwise tales at bed-time.

Tales of animals who prowled about stealthily during the night. Stories of giants and robbers, or sometimes, maybe, it is a picture the child has seen which lights up an over-vivid imagination and causes him to peep his nursery with fear-some things when the light is put out.

Household Hints

SCRAPS OF SILKS

Cut scraps of silk and linen into squares, have them picoted or work a neat roll hem. You get new and attractive handkerchiefs.

PORRIDGE PAN

Fill with warm water instead of cold water immediately after the porridge is poured out, the pan will clean much quicker.

TIRED EYES

Bathe your face and eyes in warm milk if you are going to an evening party. You will feel refreshed.

LEFT-OVER STARCH

Do this with your left-over starch after use. Let the powder settle then pour off the water. The starch becomes hard and stiff if the basin is placed in a warm oven.

SODA-WATER

Hot soda-water cleans tinware. A sliced onion is used for polishing.

BOILED POTATO

Boiled potato rubbed on a stamp, envelope or label that has lost its adhesive power is an excellent substitute for glue or paste if there is none at hand. Smear a little on the stamp or envelope and then press well.

GROUND RICE

Quarter of a pound of ground rice if put in the oven on a plate and heated and then rubbed over a soiled felt hat with a piece of flannel, will clean it up like new.

Don'ts for Women

Don't ever ask a man if he loves you.

Don't accept every "date" a man asks for; when you do accept, be on time.

Don't go out with any man you wouldn't like to have to make love to you.

Don't be affected in speech, dress or manner simplicity is important.

Raisins For Health

Raisins and grape juice are excellent for both young and old and should be used as much as possible in the daily diet. Add a few raisins to the porridge and you will find the children will enjoy what is often a despised dish. Brown bread and butter sandwiches filled with chopped raisins, or brown bread spread with a mixture of honey and raisins will be appreciated by the school child. Give each child a packet of raising to eat with his or her lunch and accustom them to eating raisins and nuts when going for picnics. Raisins will prevent train and sea-sickness, so remember when packing for a journey to place the raisins in your case. They are easily packed and will keep. In the case of brainlag or overwork raisins will be found most efficacious.

As a cure for constipation, soak four or five raisins in a glass of lemon juice overnight in the morning drink the juice and eat the raisins. For nerves and constipation, bran and raisin tea will be found excellent and not at all harmful.

Mothers Too Careless Cookery Recipes For Housewives

(BY MISS ROLLIE)

A word or two should be addressed to some very careless Bantu mothers. We read in the daily press of too many accidents befalling young children in the locations. Most of these are fire accidents. Mothers make the bucket fires and leave them at the back of their houses to get ready for the house.

Meanwhile children sit round these bucket fires, almost hugging them with their arms. One child suddenly thinks of making a little bucket fire of its own beside the bigger fire. She lights papers and stuffs them in a tin of milk, coffee or jam. As children are little monkeys in some cases, in a short time the genuine bucket fire is surrounded by several bucket fires fed with papers and sticks.

A mother appears. She says: "Hey, you children, extinguish those fires. You will burn yourselves!" She enters her house. That's all. She thinks she has done her best part in stopping the children from playing with fire. If those children caught fire subsequently she would be the first to say, "And I actually warned those silly children against playing with fire!"

A woman has a toddle—a child who begins to walk busily in the house. She knows this child thinks it its duty to handle everything that catches its eyes. What does this woman do to keep danger out of her child's way? Look. She puts a hot tea-pot on the edge of a table. A fork or knife lies on the floor. An open tin of paraffin stands at a corner within reach of the child. Rusty nails all over the floor for the child to tread up and develop lock-jaw.

Few mothers realise what great danger swinging doors are to children. An adult or a grown-up child enters the room and leaves the door open. On their footsteps crawl the child, just as it crawls through the door it swings to and bangs it on its face. Or perhaps, which is worse the child puts its fingers on open sockets of the door and as the wind closes it, the child's fingers are crushed by the door.

You cannot count them all. They are too many to count. Yet listen to the silly mothers arguing about what they know about their babies themselves. How they keep them safe and all sound all day. Accidents in homes are a disgrace to mothers. We know there are unavoidable accidents, but these I have pointed out here can easily be avoided by a little thought and attention on the part of mothers.

My Mother What I Owe To Her

It was very wise of our Editress to ask us to be brief on this subject; for who can deny the fact that if we were to write all that we owe to our mothers, it would take all the space in the paper and still have to be curtailed. As to myself, I owe so much to the daughter of Am zotsho that it would fill volumes. So I shall just sum it up in these few words—That if there is anything creditable about me, I owe it to my mother. For all my shortcomings she is not responsible. My education also I owe to her, for at the age of twelve I was sent to an institution and on my second session there my father died.

Before I conclude I must thank the fellow contributor who introduced this subject; a subject of extreme appreciation for all what our mothers have been to, and done for us. I hope that this will not be the last subject of great interest for which she will be responsible of having introduced to our pages.

As to the promoters of these most appreciated pages, what we owe to them is better imagined than described.

SAVOURY MOULD

If vegetables are used, save the water in which they were boiled and use in the aspic. Care should be taken not to make the aspic too sour.

4 cups tomato pulp, half chopped onion, quarter cup cold water; half cup boiling water, half teaspoon celery salt, 2 tablespoons gelatine; 2 cloves; salt to taste; 1 teaspoon sugar; 2 teaspoons lemon juice, vegetables and meat diced.

BEEF TOREADOR

Three quarter cup ketchup; 2 tablespoons worcester sauce; 2 teaspoons tarragon vinegar; 1 teaspoon horseradish sauce; quarter lb. diced beef; 1 oz. cooked beans; sliced cucumber and peas; pinch of cayenne; salt; 1 dessertspoon gelatine, 2 tablespoons water; serve with potato and lettuce.

GREEN MEALIE MOULD

Half cup milk; 1 cup mealies; half cup hot water; 3 eggs; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon paprika; half teaspoon grated onion; pepper; half tablespoon gelatine; make a custard with the milk, eggs, onion, salt and paprika; add the pepper and mealies. Cool and add the gelatine dissolved in hot water. Pour into moulds and chill. Serve with grated cheese and beetroot cut into fancy shapes.

ROASTED MEALIES

6 mealies boiled for 20 minutes in 1 quart water and 1 cup of milk; drain on a cloth. Cover with butter; brown in the oven basting every little while.

WALNUT PIE

Line a pie-dish with mashed potatoes, then fill with quarter lb. minced walnuts tomato purée, salt and pepper. Cover with more potato. Bake until brown first having brushed over with oil or melted butter.

TOMATO PUREE

2 tomatoes; bay-leaf; 2 cloves; half onion. Simmer until tender then strain through a sieve and use.

Quiet Girls Are Not Popular

Madame,

In response to "Another Young Man" and "A Young Man," I have read with interest and am pleased to know that there actually are young men who like to see girls abstain from smoking and so on. But may I ask them, please, to look about cautiously on future occasions, in order to find such rare treasures. Recently I went to a social gathering. It was only too obvious that noisy girls who smoked obtained male partners and friends, whereas quieter girls were hardly noticed. What do young men make of that?

May I say a word to the young men who do not like girls to smoke? I was introduced to a young man at a dance the other night who immediately asked me to have a cigarette. I refused simply because smoking does not appeal to me. He said, "What! Are you too good for such things?" With quite a sneer in his tone. I would mention that I often take a cigarette from a young man, even though I do not want it, because I am considered unsociable when I "decline with thanks."

No sensible woman hates men, and no sensible man hates women. Sex after all, is only accident of birth and it is the individuality that counts.

Perilous Eye-Veils

Madame,

This headline caught my eye as I went over the women's page of the Natal Advertiser the other day fortunately, I said, very few, if any, Bantu women wear eye-veils. But I thought of another evil which is becoming so common with misguided Bantu young women—that of wearing unnecessary glasses.

Now, from the start let me say that I am not referring to girls who are having troubles with their eyes. We all sympathise with these girls and wish them well. They should take no offence in this article as it is not directed against them at all. This is directed against senseless girls who are ruining their good eyes by wearing glasses which they do not need.

They wear these glasses because they think it is fashionable to do so. Some think eye glasses lend one an air of superiority over glass-less people. I once overheard a sarcastic man say, "Oh, send your girl to school and when she returns she will be wearing glasses so as to appear very important."

This was too sweeping, of course as it is not every girl who goes to school who suffers from glass complex. But I think it should be brought to the notice of these misguided young girls that they are doing their eyes more damage than good by wearing glasses unnecessarily. If there are girls who believe that they add to their beauty by wearing glasses, let me say they have very poor idea of what real beauty is. A beautiful woman remains beautiful even if she wears glasses or not. And for a girl to think she is enhancing her beauty by wearing needless glasses is stupidity unamed. You can see when a girl wears glasses because she needs them. She does not flout them about. But watch one who wears them as a decoration!

It is a pity we still have such senseless women among us.

Cleaning Wallpaper

BY V. R. D.

A cutting from my favourite "Christian Herald" will be of help to women readers of the Bantu World.

The ordinary method of cleaning wallpaper with a ball of dough can be improved upon considerably if the dough is made in the following manner: Take 2 lb. of flour, and add to it a heaped dessertspoonful of salt, the same quantity of soda, and piled tablespoonful of fresh lump arsenic. Mix this up with a pint of water—preferably rainwater. Then in a greased receptacle steam the mixture for half an-hour. While it is still hot, knead it thoroughly with the hands, and divide into pieces of convenient size. If you do not want to use it at once, store in an airtight tin. You can make a smaller quantity, of course, as long as you use the ingredients in the same proportion.

ASHTON & PARSONS' INFANTS' POWDERS

If your baby cries much it is because he suffers from small pains in his stomach or because his teeth are hurting as they grow. Only happy, contented babies grow strong and fat, so it is important to soothe these pains. For many years, white mothers have soothed their babies with Ashton & Parsons' Infants' Powders. You can buy these powders at the store, and they do not cost very much. They soothe pains without harm to your baby, and keep him contented so that he grows up fat and strong.

HOW TO GIVE THE POWDERS TO YOUR BABY:

When the baby is less than six months old, give only half a powder early in the morning or before he sleeps at night. Put the powder dry on the baby's tongue. If the baby is more than six months old, give a whole powder. If the baby is very restless, fretful or feverish, you may give the dose more frequently until he is soothed.

Maritzburg News

(By R. A. CALUZA.)

The Maritzburg and District African Football Association held its first annual meeting last Tuesday, February 12. The meeting was a success, and the officials elected were: President, Mr. E. O. Msimang; Vice President, Mr. Camane; Secretary, Mr. S. T. Kumaloe; Vice-Secretary and Organising Secy., Mr. A. Zulu; Treasurer, Mr. L. B. Msimang. The Association thanked the newly affiliated team, the Cannons F.C., for having presented themselves in the meeting. In closing the meeting the President stressed the need for better Soccer, the neatness of players, and the spirit of the game.

In view of the fact that Judge Col. Tatham of Natal and ex-Mayor of Maritzburg left an impression of his services in the province of Natal, the city has also agreed to make arrangements for erecting a monument in memory of his days spent in Natal.

The Standards Lawn Tennis Club played a friendly match against a selected Maritzburg club. The match was played at the Standards Court; the Maritzburg team led by two games. The Standards were represented by: Messrs L. B. Msimang (Capt.), S. T. Kumalo, F. A. Kunene, R. A. Caluza, and Misses H. Msimang and S. S. Kuzwayo. Maritzburg was represented by: Messrs E. Gumede (Capt.), E. Mesatywa, P. Sililo, the Rev. Mesatywa, and Miss H. Tshezi. In closing the match the Rev. Mesatywa, in spite of the result of the game, thanked the spirit in which the match was played, and went further to stress that what we need is practice. Never mind who wins, but better tennis should be the aim.

x x x

Maritzburg to day has formed two Associations so far as sport is concerned, namely, a Tennis Association and a Cricket Union. These Associations include members of the Bantu Sports Club and the African Football Association, and yet they are different Soccer Associations. Why is that? Maritzburg does not realise that after all it is for the good or bad of the city and in either case Maritzburg will suffer at the end.

Death Of J. Mareme Modiselle Removes Much Respected Figure

(By P.D.S.)

That the African race has sustained a severe loss in the death of Mr. J. Mareme Modiselle who passed away on Wednesday, February 13, 1935, after a short illness, was fully proved by a very large number of people who attended the deceased's funeral on Sunday last at Rama (Kwa Rrantailane) in the district of Pretoria. There was a large crowd numbering well over five hundred drawn from various parts of the Transvaal Province. There were 15 motor cars from almost every part of the Witwatersrand and Pretoria districts and one huge bus from Johannesburg carrying friends and former colleagues who had come to pay their last homage to the deceased.

Among the various Associations represented here there was a brass band led by Messrs. Sekhote and M. Modikoe from Johannesburg, a large number of officials of the Transvaal African Congress led by the President of the Congress, Mr. S. P. Mateke. Other members of the head office being Messrs. R. V. Selothe Thema, vice-President, D. L. Molefe Sgt.-at-Arms and S. S. Maloka assist. Treasurer. The branch officials being among others: I. B. Moroe, N. Komane, K. Matli, J. Polo, and D. Mathole all of Pretoria. From Johannesburg being Messrs. D. Kopanye, S. R. Mokoape Moche, Mokoape (Sen.) and P. D. Segale while Mr. T. D. Litshego of Pretoria represented the African Dingaka Association.

The impressive service which will remain indelible in the minds of all those who were present started at 3.30 p.m. led by the Minister officiating and his assistants, followed by the Congress officials who were the pallbearers, the brass band which sang one of the very best death marches from the deceased's place to the grave yard the whole crowd following. After a short and usual preliminaries at the grave yard impressive and comforting speeches were made: Among those who spoke being Messrs. S. P. Mateke, W. M. Ngapo, J. Kgapano, T. D. Litshego, I. B. Moroe, S. S. Maloka and R. V. Selothe Thema. After which the religious side of the burial ceremony closed the service, the brass band again singing various fine songs back to the deceased's house.

As one who was closely associated with Mr. Modiselle for many years I may say the deceased was one of the very few of our men who took active part in almost everything that was good in the interest of the race. As a politician his character was impeccable. He was not one of those who would allow their short tempers to rule them. He did not at anytime of his life fight against one of his colleagues because he had lost a vote during elections. As a follower he followed honestly and did all he could to help his leaders until he himself was elected and held all those various positions to which he was appointed with great ability. During the last general election of the Transvaal African Congress, Mr. Modiselle was given a responsible position of being the Chairman of Townships and Freeholders Stands Committee. He was one of the delegates who interviewed the Minister for Native Affairs a little over a year ago. Loyal and willing follower as he was, Mr. Modiselle was at times a veritable opponent when in his opinion he believed a principle was at stake.

He was one of the very sociable men in our social life. He fought in many ways to uplift his race. He could not allow himself to pass a single individual who he thought was in need, and if it was within his means to extend a helping hand he did so readily. He was deeply interested in educational

Lost 10 lbs. In Two Months

NOT TOO OLD TO REDUCE AT FIFTY

Rheumatism and Indigestion Gone, too

Here is a letter which proves that there is no necessity to tolerate excessive fatness, even at the age of 50:-

"I was becoming too fat after reaching 50, and had attacks of rheumatism and indigestion, and my outlook on life was bad. Being a salesman my condition lowered my business capacity considerably. I took ordinary salts and other medicines, but they did not do any permanent good. Then I commenced taking Kruschen as directed—and really I was pessimistic. But in spite of that I soon began to feel different—brighter, stronger, had more energy, no rheumatism, and to my surprise, after two months I lost 10 lbs. in weight, although I was eating much more, as digestion fulness had nearly left me. I recommend Kruschen on all my travels."—W.H.G.

The numerous vital salts in Kruschen stimulate and tune up the bodily functions from a number of different angles. Your stomach, liver and kidneys all feel the immediate benefit. Your blood is cleansed of impurities and becomes invigorated and refreshed. You forget indigestion, rheumatism and depression in a new and unaccustomed feeling of physical and mental exhilaration.

Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Chemists and Stores at 2/6 per bottle.

BANTU SPORTS GROUNDS

Johannesburg Bantu Sports Club

A BRIEF HISTORY BY ONE WHO KNOWS

"Don't fail to see the Bantu Sports Club" would be my advice to anyone who is visiting Johannesburg. It is the only place of its kind for Africans this side of the Atlantic. This unique arena of sports was made possible for the Africans by two generous philanthropists the late Mr. Howard Pim and Mr. J. L. Hardy, partners in an accountancy business. This Club was opened in April 1931 before a very large gathering of Europeans and Africans, and since then it has been used for various recreational games, the chief draw being Soccer. With the opening of the Club has come the re-organisation of Soccer into full play. The Johannesburg Bantu Football Association, whose headquarters are at the Municipal Offices, Wemmer Barracks, Johannesburg, now have used the Bantu Sports Grounds advantage, having increased in membership and strengthened in finance considerably. The Witwatersrand District African Football Association have also shared in the use of these grounds, and have acquired through it the only source of revenue outside Club affiliations. The East Rand District Native Football Association and the J. A. F. Associations are amongst the many other sports organisations that have participated in games at this Central Arena. But never is the Bantu Sports Club so taxed to capacity than when the South African Inter-Provincial Tournaments are staged. Every available space is used, and every available seating accommodation occupied. Side by side with its Soccer great attraction are its Tennis games. Perhaps there are no three courts so exhaustively used right through the week, let alone Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, in the whole of the Union than the Bantu Sports Lawn Tennis Courts. Besides the attractive programmes in Men's Doubles Singles, and Mixed Doubles ordinary Sunday practices become so exciting and thrilling because of the Social values accruing from such intermingling. The Club Tennis Courts, it may be safely mentioned, provide the only means of recreation outside the Dance Hall, for the Bantu womenfolk, and this alone has helped to raise their standard of civilisation to an appreciable degree. Hockey has been another line of recreation for women, but owing to its strenuousness, it has appealed mostly to the young girls in the local urban schools. The school girls enjoy this game thoroughly, and some of their recent matches have called for the keenest rivalry ever witnessed in any game.

Unlike the many recreational sporting bodies controlling Bantu sports; the club is an independent body, its legitimate source of income is the membership fees. Although memberships do not support financially in its work, they serve to give it a wide constituency and thus assure it of a large moral support.

This is merely a bird's eye view of the B. S. Club and what it has meant to the African; but to know it, is to see it, as the say, with the naked eye.

Magniter Stars In Form

One of the most successful functions in Port Elizabeth was given by the Magniter Stars in the Village Board Hall on the 8th. instant. The music was of the highest standard. The company consists of W. Kulati, Manger; P. Yako, C. Kulati, W. C. Kulati and N. Nyati.

We are very proud of these young lads. It is no exaggeration to say they are the outstanding Ragtime Company of the future. Nathel Nyati the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Nyati is a wonderful singer. Another demonstration was given by Mrs. Antionette Mali of Kimberley. Mrs. Mali is an outstanding lady singer in Port Elizabeth. Her actions are wonderful and her voice gives a thrill to every one. It is understood that Mrs. Mali is preparing for her own function which will be in March. She is also interested in the National Newspaper "The Bantu World."

Some of the people who attended this function were: Ladies: Gqobongwana, Tsoi, Ndele, Daku. Gentlemen: Marele, Kwaza, Ntontelo, Mabija, Temba, Nginza, Mtinkulu, Matini, Gosani and many others.

Mr. W. W. Jabavu was chairman and was assisted by Mr. Swartz, both of New Brighton. A dance ended the entertainment and the Port Elizabeth City Syncopators Jazz Band was in attendance.

Fine Tennis Game Coming

WHEN BANTU LADIES WILL PLAY AGAINST COLOURED

TENNIS

Pimville Tennis players in the persons of Mr. F. G. Blousie, J. Oliphant and S. P. Mntshana met the Club players last Sunday in a match that was tinged with an expression of emotionalism from the pavilion. There was pity on one side of the court for poor Oliphant and his partner, who were undergoing severe tribulation at the mercy of Sergeant Bhengu smashes and drives, and on the other side, at another stage of the match, there was bereavement for poor Snyman, who was mercilessly punished in the Singles by valiant J. Oliphant. It was not until the last set was over, that the decision was conclusively arrived at, with the Bantu Sports players leading by the narrow margin of 6 games.

The Ladies' only game that had to be staged between the Bantu Ladies and the Coloured Ladies was postponed for the 3 March 1935. The Club will be represented by Mesdames, Annie Motsung, Martha Marumo, Aggie Pretorius, Rachel Jacobs, and Evelyn Mokgethi.

To-morrow our club players visit Modderfontein where they will meet the Jupiter Club in a modern game of Tennis. The Club team will be made up by Messrs A. Kekana, Jas Bhengu, J. Sealanyane, L. Maropeng and S. R. Makutsa, Misses M. Ramorola and F. Leeuw will also play.
