

3PASSPORT REGULATIONS BILL.

Congress views with concern and strongly condemns the Passport Regulations Bill, presently before Parliament, as a completely fascist measure in that the Minister of Justice is now more fully empowered to refuse passport facilities and to impose penalties on persons who having left the country without passport return to the Union even though the Union is their land of their birth.

This further curtailment of civic liberties is most strongly condemned and Conference demands that the Government does not proceed with the enactment of this vicious measure.
