To Mr H Gray
Freebooter Laager
My Friend

I wish to inform you that this Country is the Barolong Inheritance, and I have told you already that the boundary line was made by the two Governments English & Boer, they have agreed in the line which they made, and the Country this side of the Convention line is Barolong Country for us Bechuana's that is the Inheritance of our Forefathers, It was made for us Bechuana's, and I want you to remove from our Bechuana's Country, and let your Laager remove from our Country, and those that buy a Farm will be losing their money if they buy them in Barolong Country

I remain

To the Chief Moskette
My Friend

I want to inform you that I have written to the Freebooters, and I want you to hear what I have said to them, by sending you a copy of letter which I have written to them, for perhaps they may not tell you the truth as to what I wrote with kind regards

Semini
