Mr. Oliver Tambo,
Acting Secretary General,
African National Congress,
Johannesburg, S.A.

Dear Mr. Tambo:

On behalf of the Council on African Affairs, I want to thank you most warmly for the statement which you so kindly contributed to our special issue of Spotlight on Africa last month dealing with the Asian-African Conference. Your expression and those of other leaders in South Africa and other sections of the continent helped our members and readers in getting an understanding of one aspect of the importance of the Bandung Conference that has been more or less ignored in the press here.

I regret that because of the limited space it was necessary for us to omit parts of nearly all of the statements. We believe and hope this did not detract from the main points expressed.

I trust you have received a copy of the issue referred to and I shall be happy to have your critical comments on it. In our May issue, which will be forwarded soon, we are reviewing the results of the Asian-African Conference.

Again, I thank you for your statement.

Mr. Paul Robeson, Chairman, and Dr. W. B. Du Bois, our Vice Chairman, join me in expressing heartiest greetings to you and your organization.

Sincerely yours,

W. A. Hinton
