22nd January, 1962.

Dear Raddolph,

I enclose a copy of the letter which I sent to the Archbishop. I hope it is factually correct.

I should like to hear your frank opinion of the Lutuli review. You may have sensed that it was a genuine tribute to the man, a frank criticism of a not very good book, and a certain holding-back about his politics.

All good wishes for the success of your application.

Yours sincerely,
