

On commencing the preparation of a paper such as this I first take a large sheet of paper and write down the random thoughts which I feel might be of relevance. These thoughts are later analysed and sorted into headings which would be of similar headings.

This file contains the large sheets of paper containing the first random thoughts.

Also rough lists of thoughts having a bearing on what could possibly be incorporated in the paper.

At Paul: I am a citizen of no mean city.

Who is my neighbour
how they neighbour as they self.

How we that pride in our city

Do not the citizens take things for granted.

What interest is taken in how people in the other suburbs live.

One servant's law are we concerned w it will cost more.
w our servants will be later
& we have to do more.

(c) concerned with the hardship two servants in long haul of travel.

(d) will be squel when bus services & have to be provided & a bus stop is outside our door & the bus make too much noise going down our street.

The crowded train

who shall teach
who shall be taught
what shall be taught.

The great ability the desire for wealth tempt them will on the citizens, the use of teletype, shall for the memorandum. Get the words glory to God in the highest. The spirit message of the manic what impression can the barren had with murders of the shoes what a mockery of the message. Was such an alibi contribution well being.

Recreational area a good idea but not next time.

Pass land & family life.

The break up of traditions in Africa family life.

Limiting of education to funds provided by Bantu

Language fear in the township
No of Police

Difficult position of Bantu Police

Bantu suffer more at the hands of their own people.

Inquired. Where are we going
Has profit motive killed our sense of values

Could we do this as a series of questions
Battle to pay death. The position of the aged, the widows

The orphan (Traditions break down).

The position of Bantu football.

The Indians - the Coloureds.

Labor - an economic transaction

High labor, after delay marriage
Labor not paid in cattle - no reserves given Money bears no labor nor does it buy like one.

If a man does away with his traditional way of living and throws away his good customs, let's bet he'll find more value than he has something of value to replace them.

Women desire to be paid. Men do not love them sufficiently,
if they don't pay labor.

Considered form of marriage Kapita - living together unhelpful, Public opinion so important a sanction in tribal life. In labor life does not act as a deterrent Responsibility of African men who enjoy all privileges of a wife & children without the obligations of legal matrimony.

Some African men actually believe it is unhelpful to women to refrain from making love to them.

Wife is the responsibility of the man - displacement
at head of family

Page 104 Never before in the history of man did I see the the family life of a people in so that a person has experienced so stable and so great a dislocation necessary to adjust to a new situation

He extended family unit in tribal life was established on a one irrevocable bond with all social religious & economic functions

Do we encourage people to think themselves.
What can we do encourage peoples aspirations for Commerce & Industry b.w. created in a place, as persons

What can we as Council do to create a greater sense of community & pride in our city.
Must we be judged by our pavements & our bus services

Stifling of thought. Adverse Protagoras of Univ of A. Concentration on differences

Mayor's Committee

Warm hearted people of Johannesburg Do work for so many good causes.

Insurance of the talented people. Job Reservation.
no encouragement to craftsmanship.

Meysers & Ferrary - We wondered how the decent people allowed such a thing to happen. little by little what are we doing, little souls of men food old day of Hoernle, Brooke R.G. best again. At the liberal spirit. Calverin tried to do what people of Village but they drove him out.

Are we trying to build or destroy.
what is our greatness in our skyscrapers / Depth of our mind. These peaked people to waste it. The people are first. Dumb out people Talents - 10 so 5 who are we if don't allow those with talents to develop them

local fact the grass roots of democracy cannot be reached by people than any other reference fact of people - by the people for the people.
