My Dear Mrs Sobulwe.

It is with a great joy to let you know that I received your letter. The first thing is that you must not worry yourself about Miliswe's forms - for coming home during June holidays my husband fixed everything for Miliswe, Jedani, & Jali. I met Mrs Ntwana and she was so pleased to see the twins being happy and fresh.

She was also in a great difficulty about getting passport for her children - but my husband helped her to get them together with their coming home forms. I will be pleased to get twins see towards the end of the month. Please Veronica don't think that I took you in a bad spirit for delaying sending twins Lee.

 I know well that you can not cheat us. The only thing is that you are just alone. And you can't do things all at a time.

I have bought grass hats for my twins, they are so pleased, and they say they will put them the day they will reach Makolo Village Ha! Ha!! Ha!!! it's so nice in the kitchen they are busy writing to you.
 you can laugh and bust when seeing them writing my poor kids are busy.

So Xav

your real friend
 K. K. Makhele
