THE SOPHIATOWN METHODIST CHURCH CHOIR WHOSE CONDUCTOR IS MR. J. SEALANYANE, A CIRCUIT SANG AT OCCUPATION A ME JOHANNESBURG, SANG AT ELOFF STREET EXTENSION RIGHT WORTHY SESSION. OF THE INDEPENDENT ORD AFRICA, THE PROTECTORA STITUTED FOR MR. SEALANYANE.

As a point of interest, the delegates who represent a membership of over 100,000 members of all races assembled at the B.M.S.C. on December 7 and were welcomed by Councillor I. E. B. Attwell ex-Mayor of Johannesburg and Rev. Dr. J. B. Webb. A final ceremony to the session included a service at the Methodist Central Hall, Pritchard Street, Johannesburg on and on January 4 at the Donaldson Orlando Community Centre. The choir also made some recording with a gramophone company and the Bantu Programmes of the S.A.B.C. Some of the recorded songs will be heard on the S.A.B.C. and through the Rediffusion Service at Orlando Township.

The South African Bantu National Eisteddfod will be held at Maseru on April 3 to 5. The Jubilee Singers under Mr. L. T. Makheba will leave Johannesburg by bus on April 2. People wishing to join this bus must communicate early with Mr. L. T. Makheba, 102 Tladi Street, Western Native Township, Johannesburg. A surprise in the eisteddfod is that the famous Senekal Choir, whose reputation in the past few years was a household word in the Free State, is intending to enter the competition. This choir is conducted by Mr. E. E. Monese who ably brought it to fame in the past.

The Morija College Choir had only a short stay on the Rand and many music fans were disappointed that a properly arranged function could not be arranged to hear them. On January 3 they sang at the Village Main P.E.M.S. Church

Dear Children,

Here is an interesting question to ask, that is if you, like me, are interested in animals. If you watch some of the things some animals do and ask yourself why they do them, you may be amused at some of the answers. Here is one which I ask myself. "Why does a dog go round and round before it lies down?" The answer lies in the answer to another; What is a dog? We are so familiar with animals like dogs and cats, and horses and pigeons, that we often forget their history. Really, the dog does not lead a natural life. All natural animals are wild; but these are tame—domesticated, as we say, which simply means made homely.

Now, these domesticated animals very often follow the habits of their wild forefathers, though hundreds of generations may have passed. This is a very wonderful fact, showing how things are handed on from parents to children. The dog, turning round and round before it lies down, gives us an instance of one of these inherited habits. The dog's far-away ancestors were animals that lived in jungles, grass, and if they wanted a comfortable bed they had to turn round and round a few times so as to level the grass. As that habit is really inherited, and is natural in the dog, and has not been taught it, by itself or anyone else, we call it an instinct.

Can you tell me any such actions with any other animal?

In the picture, from left to right you see: Josephine Kgaosane, Ida Munge and Queenie Keena—the three are students of the Arthurseat High School, Acornhoek, Transvaal. Their picture was sent to me by Mr J. Russell Saoli for inclusion in our column. We are glad to see you girls!

of Bhongweni. Mr. Marks Koloko led in singing a hymn and Mr. Matsie said a prayer in thanksgiving. Thereafter schoolmaster Mr. Steven Komani called all the kiddies present together to form a circle and to watch young Khantse blow out the candles on her cake one by one. When she had blown the last one a loud "hurray" went up from the little ones who shook Khantse's hand. The guest of honour was overcome with emotion and tears rolled down her young face and immediately she dashed to where her grandfather, Oompie Motlhaba, stood. Then followed hymn singing by the children.

Cape Town children call on Malome... Children of the Langa D.R.C. School visited us at the Bantu World offices recently. In a letter to me Mr. D. M. Diemena who led the touring party says, they left Cape Town on December 14 and travelled through the Free State, Transvaal and Northern Cape. They were in Bloemfontein on December 16 where Mr. Kista acted as host. They were shown the Court of Appeal, Zoo and Naval Hill. From the top of Naval Hill they were afforded a panoramic view of Bloemfontein and surroundings. On December 18 they left for Vereeniging where the Municipality gave them a free use of a bus that took them to places of interest, among them, SAFIM (S. A. Farmers' Implement Manufacturers) and Rand Water Board and Iscor. The generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Pheko, Mrs. E. Mako, Mr. T. L. L. Makhoabanyane, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Maboea is specially mentioned for various acts of kindness to the tourists. Mr. F. M. Matee, principal of the Vereeniging Municipal School, who organised visits to Vereeniging and Johannesburg helped in bringing the children to me here. At Kimberley, Rev. C. Kies of the D.R.C. assisted the tourists. Miss L. Sediti of Barkly Road, Kimberley served the children with tea

The party returned to Cape Town on December 29 and through our column wish to thank all who made their stay at various places pleasant and especially the children who willingly joined in play with the tourists. Your friend, MALOME

Professor M. Payet, director of the School of Medicine at Dakar, French West Africa, and Dr. Camain, a well known histopathologist, arrived at Palmietfontein by Pan-American Clipper to study the problem of liver diseases among South African Bantu. They will compare their findings with investigations of similar diseases among Bantu in French West Africa. Their visit to the Union is the result of a special edition of the French medical journal, "La Semaine des Hopitaux," devoted to medicine in South Africa, and published under the auspices of the South African National French Association.

Women's World

Some 600 delegates attended the Triennial Regional Convention of the North Western A.M.E. Church Women's League held in the Communal Hall, Western Native Township, Johannesburg recently. Mrs. Mabotho, honorary president was in the chair.

Mrs. Mabotho told the convention that the League was missionary; its work was distinctly women's work. The ministers in charge of stations depended on the women's activities, and she also appealed to members of the League for funds to support expansion schemes at Wilberforce Institution, the Church's only institution in the land under African patronage.

Mother N. B. Tantsi was elected president; Mothers N. Makheba and E. Sello, vice presidents; Sister V. Tilo, secretary; Sister Mbele, correspondent; Sister L. Mrs. C. L. Opperman and Mrs. R. Makau who were delegates to the General Conference held in Chicago last year attended by over 6,000 delegates from different parts of the world, submitted their report and gave the Convention their impressions. Briefly Mrs. Opperman described the voyage to America, Jamaica and Great Britain. They visited the graves of African ministers who died in America but were disappointed to find that they were not properly looked after. They did not fail to express their disappointment that they felt at home in Jamaica.

Mrs. R. Makau read a letter from the A.M.E. Church World Women's president in America announcing the appointment of Mrs. C. L. Opperman to the Seventeenth vice president of Laymen and of herself, as the eighteenth vice-president.

There are over a thousand bats living between the roof and ceiling of my house. They are a great nuisance; could you please advise me how to get rid of them?—"Inquirer," Ha Molapo

(You should refer to the health authorities of your area who will get rid of the bats for you.) I have been a photographer for a period of ten years, but I have no experience of colouring. Would you kindly advise me where I can obtain a course in photo colouring?—E. T. M. Mphahlele, Pietersburg

(As no training centre exists for Africans seeking this course, I suggest you get apprenticed to a qualified photographer. You should also write to a technical college in your district.) Fashionable Sophiatown Wedding

At the Sophiatown Anglican Church on Saturday, January 10, the marriage of Mr. Andrew Legodi, a teacher at Potchefstroom, and Miss Blanche Mokuena, arts and crafts instructor at the Edenvalle Hospital was solemnized by Father Ross.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Mokuena, well-known residents of Sophiatown, and a sister of the famous singer, Mrs. Liphuko of Orlando.

She was beautifully arrayed in dress and shoes of off-white material, embellished with silver tinsel giving the whole a shimmer and sparkle of unusual brilliance. Six bridesmaids with partners and seven children completed the bridal procession. The nairs were made from the following young people: Misses Ellen Melk, Marjorie Ramogona, Patricia Mokuena; Theresa Magang, Joyce Pillso, and Dulcie Mayeza; Messrs Graham Noluthshungu, Boss Mokuena, Lawrence Wassenaar, Elias Kodisang, George Mokuena, and John Diale.

Flower girls and page boys were Pinkie Moroka, Vicis Rezant; Pop Poop; Chollie Nkile;

Thelma Seboko; Phuthi Nakeni and June Nxumalo. Here Mr. J. R. Rathebe was master of ceremonies and chief speaker. Other speakers were Messrs P. S. Gwele of Roodepoort, D. Segobane of Potchefstroom, and Mr. R. N. Gugushe of Orlando who also proposed the toast. Advice was proffered the young couple by all speakers.

Mr. O. Ferdinand, rendered a classic solo with Mrs. E. Mtsieloa at the piano. Afterwards Mrs. B.

Makau and Miss J. Nkoane members of Mrs. Mtsieloa's "Western Pollux" sang a soprano, and also drew amid applause and shouts ofencore.

Mrs. E. Mtsieloa, "grand old lady" of music or "Sis Emily" as she is popularly known, brought another one out of the bag when she took part in a trio, singing and accompanying herself, Mrs. E. Liphuko and Mr. O. Ferdinand in a really bright number.

The ceremony was wound up with a dance. The Shanty Town Sextettes Band under B. Gwele played after they had struck up the wedding march.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS IN ACTION

A Lourenco Marques basketball team visited Johannesburg last week. The team which is entirely composed of Chinese, played three matches at the Bantu Men's Social Centre, all of which they won. The matches were played on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. This action photograph was taken by our cameraman on Friday night at the BMSO and shows the ball hanging over the net to secure a point for the Bantu who lost to the Johannesburg Chinese, but never had a chance to meet the tourists. This is a new game among adults in Johannesburg and is becoming increasingly popular.

PERAN WISA is my outright selection for the Metropolitan Handicap to be run at Kenilworth next Saturday over 1 1/2 miles.

There are several pointers to Peran Wisa as a likely winner. He is in the E.G. Killa stable which also houses the recent two-time winner Quickgrass, and he is preferred in the betting. If he is better than Quickgrass, he must be strongly respected. Then he broke the course record at Milnerton over nine furlongs on New Year's day beating Rialto. Rialto then won a race very easily and this was an advertisement for Peran Wisa's win. He is going to be hard to beat.

"ROSE, THE BOSS SAYS NUTRINE IS THE MOST NOURISHING FOOD FOR BABY. WE MUST GET IT."

"NUTRINE CERTAINLY IS NOURISHING. IT HAS MADE BABY FAT AND STRONG IN ONLY 3 MONTHS."

BABIES NEED NOURISHING FOOD. Very often ordinary food, even if mother's milk, does not give babies enough nourishment and they become thin and weak and cry a lot. Parents who are worried about their babies should feed them on Nutrine. Nutrine is a very nourishing food and soon makes babies fat and healthy. That's why Doctors and Nurses recommend it.
