Food: Joe Tolo: he was in charge of the food.

Even during a meal - Prof would have a different plate of his food ^{was} be better than others - he would ^{never} present objects that were not meant to be a mark of respect. It was done only for him alone.

He shared a domitory with all of us - in 1 hall.

We were in stopping for around 6 months of time we were transferred - we did not find it hard.

"The chap who was looking after us - in the way he was ready to do anything for us - was in charge of the group - the warden wanted us to run with the subordinates.

up & down we must see,
 but we id we are not going to do it.

We decided on a go-down

we were searched.

We were called into this camp by 2 shops - we did not see the other wardens, Reg was in hiding.

When we were encamped
in this little camp these fellows started coming in. The whole group of us were called in - but it only pop out there were those

 This is the point we were trying to show the outside world: that there is no question of an invitation here.
 We have not invited anybody who is not a member of the NAC.
 We are trying to prove that the people who are here are all members of NAC and there is not a single person who says he is not a member of NAC, & who can be regarded as having been invited.

There was a lot of debate about it before the Executive took a decision in favor of an appeal which be lodged.
