Dear Sir,

I was asked to make some copies of your list of training schools for Non - European Nurses. The list is dated June 1938, and I thought it was not up to date, i.e. the General Hospital in Pretoria has now a training for the Medical Council certificate for Medical and Surgical Nursing, and so has the the Victoria Hospital at Lovedale a Midwifery training. Could you please let me know if there are some more additions to this list? Or is there a list of more recent date?

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully

Dear Mrs. Rhenallt Jones.

note
I am sorry I waited so long time to thank you for the list of training Hospital for Non-European Nurses you send me. There were indeed many more than in 1938, specially for general nursing. As Midwifery training centre you could add the King Edward VIII, Durban. That must be the biggest midwifery training school I expect. They had 16 passes with the last exam.

The Somerset Hospital in Cape Town was also to be a training for Midwifery, but I dont know if the course there has started. There were no final exams from there yet in the last list.

With many thanks,

Yours faithfully,

J. W. Keizer
