Dear Mrs Anderson

I am most grateful to you for the invaluable information about Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe which you sent in your letter of December 18.

Details about his early life are so sparse that I am always glad to get whatever I can, if only to crosscheck what I already have. So may I please take up your kind offer to send me (1) details of his early student career and (2) copies of the press clippings? And, may I ask, do you perhaps have the exact wording of his March 1960 letter of resignation from the university?

I did not know that he had acted as a reader of manuscripts for OUP, I shall write to David Philip in Cape Town in case he was with OUP at the time and can tell me what was actually involved.

Again, my thanks to you.

Yours sincerely

BENJAMIN POGRUND
