PRESS RELEASE 84/05/11

The UDF welcomes the announcement that the government allow democratically elected SRC in Pretoria.

This move should permit better student - teacher relationship in future and help prevent the misunderstandings which led to myriads of students' unrest since the June 16th 1976 events.

At the same time the UDF deplores the assaults by the police on students on Thursday.

It is quite clear now that the demand for an SRC by the students was quite legitimate, hence the concession by the government that SRC's may be formed.
