20th November 1914.

Dear Plaatje,

I am so sorry that your telegram has only just reached me, asking for a ticket for Lord Roberts' funeral. I only hope that you went to the War Office and received one in my absence. I should much have liked to help you especially for the sake of Lekoko and Baralong.

I had hoped to be back in Mafeking by this time, had it not been for the war. As soon as that is over I hope to return to South Africa.

Believe me,

Yours truly,

Robert Baden Powell
