

When I tried to engage him in dinner, he said it be felt desperately sorry for a part for they were blind to reality. And then he used this phrase: "We must forgive them because they really don't know what they are doing. We must pray for them that their eyes will be opened."

He then asked me: "Will you pray for them now?"

So Francis knelt
next to him and said a prayer.

I prayed for him, as he he hadn't asked me to. I also prayed for the goat. Then he prayed also, & used again,
"Father forgive them." He also said "Take away all bitterness from us & help us to work for a security when we will all love each other, & not hate each other because hate will destroy us all."
