

c. 1945?

Legal Aid

As you all know Africans suffer <sup>special</sup> disabilities that all justice loving and fair-minded <sup>people</sup> always feel that some of these cases should be challenged in Court of laws as being acts of injustice against individual Africans in particular and against the African race in general. There were two such cases during the year. One that of Mr Molebo of Pietersburg and the other involved 31 African Women who were arrested and convicted at Heidelberg without fair trial.

Mr Molebo was <sup>being</sup> deported without trial under the clause in the Native Administration Act which declares in effect that "the Governor-General may if he deems in the interest of good government, remove or deport any a native, or groups of natives or a tribe from any place to any other place". This we feel is undemocratic, unchristian and disregards human decency. We ~~are~~ paid for this $110

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the African National Congress held at Congress Headquarters in Johannesburg on 12th August 1945 it was resolved:

1. African Education:

That whereas

Collection Number: AD843

XUMA, A.B., Papers

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers Research Archive

Location:- Johannesburg

©2013

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the archive of the South African Institute of Race Relations, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.