AIRMAIL.

Mr. B. Pogrand,
213, Diamond Exchange Building,
de Vilhiers Street,
JOHANNESBURG.

Dear Benjie,

I received both your letters and I agree with the course adopted in your last letter, that is, before a declaration of rights can be applied for, a case should be built up.

The question of receiving post is too dicey to base an application on.

In the meantime I'm looking forward to receiving an opinion from Ernie. Please keep at him as he tends to be a little lazy.

sorry to hear about you and Astrid.

I will definitely see you when I'm in Johannesburg and may very well accept your offer of accommodation, and the same applies here; when you are in Cape Town.

Regards,

BARNEY.
