S.T. Plaatje - Correspondence

Da 34 [c.1913?]

Sir,

The people around here requested me to help them think about affairs connected with Jabavu and the Land-Bill. I will be back home on Wednesday and I would be happy to find your telegram having arrived. I can show them then the difficulties I am forced with and ask for help. How long shall we be a laughing-stock of other nations? Even the day the paper is established are we still to fail?

Greetings

Sol.T. Plaatje
