Sir,

With reference to your challenging remarks in "Fair Comment" (Contact 3 October) I sincerely hope that the leadership of the Pan African Congress will accept your challenge, so that they should state explicitly that they have 2,500 paid-up members. This is a question of public interest, and therefore the PAC must view it in that light. Many people are anxiously waiting to hear as promised a few months back that the membership of the PAC would reach 100,000 by July 1959. We demand to know from the leadership how many of our compatriots have accepted the policy of the PAC since their first conference.

Judged by any political standards the PAC is not truly representative of the African people.

THOMAS NGWENYA
(Member Provincial Executive
ANC Cape )
Cape Town.
