Dear Sir,

Mrs Mokhele has asked me to let you know that she has received your letter with thanks, and in reply to some wishes to advise that at this stage there is not much need to get a special person to take them in English.

She is satisfied as a teacher that they pick quite nicely under her care and somebody else might confuse them, and am of the same opinion.

I suppose you will be pleased to hear that their health is superb and hope will continue some more for just the nip of cold now.

Yours faithfully,

H.E. Temlett.
