4th July, 1960.

Dear Dr. Harrington,

I was very glad to receive through Annie Laurie Williams the cheque for $1000.00 from the Community Church. I decided to split this into three and to give one-third to the Detainees' Fund in Durban, one-third to the Detainees' Fund in Maritzburg, and the balance to the Liberal Party of South Africa which has supplied a good deal of the man-power in connection with the various relief funds all over the country. I hope that each of these three bodies will write to you to express their acknowledgment and thanks. But I also want you to know how welcome your gift was to us, not only the money, but also the reminder that people so far away were thinking of us. Please convey my warm thanks to your people.

I well remember speaking in your Church in 1954, and as you probably already know, I may see you later this year. The only possible obstacle will be the passport.

I am glad to tell you that many detainees have been released during the last week, and we heard with great joy this morning that our greatest friends have been released today. It is widely thought here that the only thing which saved me from arrest was the large number of friends I have abroad, especially in America.

Warm regards.

Yours sincerely,
