Leribe,
LESOTHO.

Dear Sister Superior,

Enclosed please find my cheque for R60.55 in payment of the year's fees for Miliswa Sobukwe. I am also enclosing your account.

I would like Miliswa to have some pocket money so that she can buy sweets or any other little things which she may want. May I please ask for your guidance in this?
Should I send the money straight to her? I ask this because I would not like to do anything which might infringe your hostel rules. And could you perhaps advise me what sort of an amount she might need?

I shall also from now on be sending her brother, Dini, batches of books at regular intervals, and he has promised me that he will hand these on to Miliswa. I hope that this will help to improve her English. The first batch of books is already on its way. I put these together in a hurry and I am not too happy either with their standard or their state of repair, but better books will follow.

My thanks to you for the way in which you look after Miliswa. From letters, I know that her father is deeply appreciative.

Yours sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGROUND
