

Express

Longon
Amiens.

32

Mrs. D. Schwartz.

5. Wessel Gardens,
Golders Green,
London, N.W. 11.
England.

EXPRESS

MOSCOU

N^o 481

R

Moscow, 10-Jan. 1927

Dear Mama!

I received your letter of the 31. Dec. as well as all the childrens letters. I am of course happy with the School reports, and to hear that you are all keeping fairly well. On the other hand it gives me no rest when I think of the position you are in at present, and if you do not succeed in raising some money on the life policy, it will be very difficult for you to pay your way.

However, I am not asleep, and am trying my very best to get you over the difficulties. It is most important not to lose ones head & keep on hammering and results must follow. It is no use worrying, it will not help.

Now I hope you have had a visit from the gentleman I wrote you about. He should have paid you a debt he owes me of £25— I also wrote to Bernstein and asked him to lend you £20 for 3 months.

and I wrote to Kado m'eff and told him to give you £20 which money I will give here to his brother as I did before. Some of the bills must wait a while.

Now again I have asked, for a time at least, that you should be given work again, and you will no doubt receive a letter to call either to Comy.

Gloukhov of the Lovborgfest who was asked to give you a position, or you may receive a letter from Arcos. Com. Kueryk Trade representation was written about you, and I am sure you will be given work. ⁱⁱ That is of course so far as the whole question is yet hanging in abeyance.

Mama

I thought it best in any case to raise the question about your discharge apart from the other question and my own appointment which is bound to be settled within the next 3, or 4 weeks.

That is all I can say & can do at present.
as soon as I know definitely any other arrangements I will immediately let you know. The most important thing of all,
do not lose your head & keep down worrying. There are worse things in life.
so long as you are well, all will pass.

It is bitter cold here, I am still in my London coat & brown shoes. But what can I do? Am I worrying? not a bit! it's all nonsense. I am only sorry for you.

However. More next time I hope you will get through this quarter.

Love Sam.

I am with the Children desperately

Moscow 10 - Jan. 1927

Dear Mama !

I received your letter of the 31. Dec. as well as all the childrens letters. I am of course happy with the School reports; and to hear that you are all keeping fairly well. On the other hand it gives me no rest when I think of the position you are in at present, and if you do not succeed in raising some money on the life policy it will be very difficult for you to pay your way. However, I am not asleep, and am trying my very best to get you over the difficulties. It is most important not to loose ones head & keep on hammering and results must follow. It is no use worrying, it will not help. Now I hope you have had a visit from the gentleman I wrote you about. He should have paid you a debt he owes me of £25- I also wrote to Bernstein and asked him to lend you £20 for 3. months. and I wrote to Kadomtzeff and told him to give you £20 which money I will give here his brother as I did before. Some of the bills must wait a while. Now again I have asked, for a time at least, that you should be given work again, and you will no doubt receive a letter to call either to Comr. Gloushko of the Sortogflot who was asked to give you a position, or you may receive a letter from Arcos. Com. Xukzyk Trade representative was written about you, and I am sure you will be given work. That is of course so far as the whole question is yet hanging in abeyance. I thought it best in any case to raise the question about your discharge apart from the other questions and my own appointment which is bound to be settled within the next 3, or 4 weeks. That is all I can say & can do at present. As soon as I know definitely any other arrangements I will immediately let you know. The most important thing of all, do not loose your head & keep down worrying. There are worse things in life. So long as you are well, all will pass. It is bitter cold here.

(10.1.1927)

2

I am still in my London coat & brown shoes. But what can I do? Am I worrying? Not a bit! Its all nonsense.
I am only sorry for you. However, more next time. I hope you will get through this quarter.

Love Sam.

I am writing the children separately

Collection Number: A3299

Collection Name: Hilda and Rusty BERNSTEIN Papers, 1931-2006

PUBLISHER:

Publisher: Historical Papers Research Archive

Collection Funder: Bernstein family

Location: Johannesburg

©2015

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of the Hilda and Rusty Bernstein Papers, held at the Historical Papers Research Archive, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.