Dear Chief,

On this Colonial Youth Day, 1955, we the youth of South Africa of all races and from different walks of life send you our fighting greetings.

To us you are not only the leader of oppressed South Africa, striving to establish a free and happy future for all its peoples, more than that, you symbolize Colonial Africa in revolt — unfettering its chains of oppression; marching forward courageously, proudly, determinedly to restore light into a Continent darkened by Colonial oppressors and madmen; marching forward to ensure a place of dignity and honour for its peoples, side by side with the free peoples of the whole world.

WE WILL WIN — for right and justice are on our side.

May you live long to continue to guide us to a brighter future.

Yours for Afrika,
