

JOHANNESBURG
2nd September, 1966.

BY HAND

Dear Mrs Sobukwe,

I am glad to let you know that Mrs Stott has advised me that she has attended to your booking at the Hotel Tafelberg in Cape Town. She will also attend to the account, so we shan't have to worry about this.

I am advising her by telegram today that you will be arriving in Cape Town at 2 pm on Monday, September 5. I am certain that she will be at the station to meet you. Just in case there is some slip-up, her address is: 6, Bishopscourt Road, Newlands, Cape Town, telephone 77.3368.

To cover incidental expenses for your trip, I have pleasure in enclosing R20. Should this prove to be insufficient, will you perhaps ask Mrs Stott to lend you whatever you need, and to let me know the amount so that I can refund it to ~~her~~?

I know how much this trip will mean both to you and to Bob, and I am glad to have been able to help in bringing it about. Naturally, my warmest affections to Bob. I hope he is well, and that his spirit and courage continue at the same high level. I only wish that I could also go and see him -- or ~~even~~ better, that we could see him off the Island. well

Best wishes for a happy visit.

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN POGRUND
