No. 105. V.14. p.2716 at p.2718.

A.N.C. meeting, cor. Victoria & Morris Streets, Sophiatown, 5/6/1955.

Purpose - apparently protest against passes, Bantu Education, Western Areas and support for C.O.P.

Speech mainly on C.O.P. Reference to Bantu Education.

p.2718. Bantu Education:- There are some people who deliberately did not enter the struggles of the boycott. Those areas which have not yet started should be ready. Those areas which have not done anything must at once get on. It is your duty now to organise and withdraw your children from Vewwoerd schools.

p.2718/9. Reference to persons expressing defeatist sentiments about the effect of boycott. "I want to say to those people, they must realise this, what happened to that great and unjust laws, the Defiance Campaign. The whole world began to realise what was happening in South Africa..... In this campaign you will realise that we are not going to gain military victory, but we are going to gain moral victory.

p.2719. C.O.P. is a mighty organisation which is going to embrace the people from Cape Town to Durban It is for this campaign that the congress will be known to the whole world. It is this campaign that we are going to reveal the dirty work of the Nationalists.

p.2719. One thing you must realise is that when the A.N.C. tells you to do this you must do it, because it is well planned.

p.2719. They can call me a communist or agitator for the reason that I want my freedom. I will accept that.

S. TYIKI (75) No. 105. v.l. p.2716.

A.N.C., Sophiatown, Jhb., 5/6/55. Acted as Chairman.

p.2716. Theme of meeting; Western Areas Removal, Bantu Education and passes.

p.2716. "You must tell the Dutch that we do not hate one another. We must stay peacefully as God have created us".

p.2718. Speech by J. Matlou.(38). "In this campaign you will realise that we are not going to gain military victory, but we are going to gain moral victory".
African people in order to overcome difficulties must achieve unity which C.O.P. will help to attain.

p.2719. Tyiki: We want everybody to attend C.O.P. Even if he is a drunkard he must come and explain why he is a drunkard. Even Europeans must send their demands.

H. Tshabalala (44).

Meeting 105: Volume 14, Page 2716 at 2717.

5/6/55 Sophiatown.

- A.N.C. - The speech opposes Bantu Education.
- "Sons and daughters of Africa, you must know that it is only the parliament that does not believe that strength is unity, because when you are united their day will be finished here".

The speaker advocates the withdrawal of children from schools.

Reported by Gladwell Ngcai. Notes made at the time. Fair.

No. 88. V.18. p.2538 at p.2543.

A.N.C. meeting, Sophiatown, 19/6/1955.

Purpose - apparently to support C.O.P. at Kliptown.

Speech in support of C.O.P.

p.2543. Many speakers have shown why the people should get freedom. Chairman, there is going to be no doubt that Europeans of Africa are leading no state, and fear shivering.

p.2543. A.N.C. has realised that people in South Africa who are in dark corner cannot be reached. By this Congress of People we want to be represented by our people in Parliament.

p.2543/4. We do not want Bantu Education. We do not want our children to be chased by Dutchman. So I want everybody in place at Kliptown at 2p.m. (C.O.P.)

S TYIKI (75). No. 88. V.13. p.2538.

Meeting concerning forthcoming C.O.P.

p.2539. Churches of which we have many will not free S.A. People must unite. "God says every human being are the same."

p.2540. Reference to school boycott.

+ p.2541. "We do remember the time of Jesus' birth. Big Governors were worried asking where Jesus shall be born. It was said that at Bethlehem. Same applies to Africans, we shall get freedom from Kliptown."

p.2539. As next week on Sunday we have no meeting here we shall meet at Kliptown.

A most incompetent piece of reporting of speech.

p.3. The future of this country is us
We must fight for the future of our children.
Take an example of India, Gold Coast.

p.4. We definitely believe that the future and victory are ours.

p.4. Let us forget that so and so is p.4. It is true - our country is ours. So the white people must have fear when we meet.

In fact we speak nothing bad by we speak about freedom. We want to live with them in peace in this country. We cannot say they should return to where they come from because they do not even know that place.

p.4. Refers to specific instances of discrimination between White and Black, e.g. passes, wages. "They want to get rich with our sweat. They fear to pay you a good wage is theirs and in future they will rule this country. We do not say to them that they should leave this country, but we say we should eat with and be rich like them and have cars.

p.5. We know there are people who cannot support us. Because they are bought with pennies.

p.5. Here at Dube we should elect delegates for C.O.P. because we want our streets to be tarred road because I know the municipal will never put it in our township.
