CAPE TOWN.

Dear Sir,

While in Cape Town recently, I visited Mr. Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe on Robben Island.

Mr. Sobukwe informed me that copies of the London weekly newspaper "The Observer", a subscription to which I had arranged for him, were not reaching him. I approached the jail authorities about the matter and was advised to communicate with you.

As I am anxious to ascertain what has happened to the subscription, I shall be glad if you will let me know whether copies of "The Observer" addressed to Mr. Sobukwe have been retained by you. The subscription was taken out more than two months ago and the first copies should have arrived by now.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

BENJAMIN POHREB.
