Dear Tom,

I have already started studying the question of Christianity and Communism, so I shall not now need to study your paper on the Church laity, and the World.. I am therefore returning this to you.

I am very fascinated by your idea that the ruder perils have disappeared from the world. I have only two observations to make:- (A) I doubt very much if the presence of these ruder perils weighed down as heavily on people as you think, and (b) I should imagine that anxiety in the modern world is much greater than it has ever been before. Yet I am sure that you must have an idea somewhere and I am only sorry that I was not able to comprehend it.

Yours ever,
