Dear Sir,

Abe Bailey Trust.

We refer to your report of the 5th February last, which was placed before the Trustees at their Meeting held in Cape Town last week. The Trustees expressed their approval of the manner in which their grants have been utilised by your Institute, and have authorised a further grant of £1,000 for 1953. The Trustees' cheque in favour of your Institute is attached.

We have been instructed to request you to submit further reports in future, so that the Trustees can have information on the continuing benefits accruing from the work of your Institute and we have also been requested to obtain from you, when these become available, the final drafts mentioned in paragraph eight of your letter of the 5th February, 1953, and a copy of Mrs. S. Toens' report. We should be grateful if you would kindly forward eight copies of each of these reports when they become available.           

Yours faithfully,

(E.E.C. Le Feuvre)
DIRECTOR.

Dear Sir,

The Abe Bailey Trust.

We are instructed by the Trustees of the Abe Bailey Trust to inform you that the proposals outlined in your letter of the 7th September, 1951, meet with their approval.

In view of the work being undertaken by Mr. van Wyk, the Trustees have authorised a grant of £1,000 for the current year.

As previously advised, grants are made by the Trustees on an annual basis, and are subject to review at the end of each financial year. In the circumstances, we recommend that reports on the manner in which the funds granted by the Trustees are being spent be rendered to them quarterly, care of us.

In accordance with the Trustees' resolution, we are enclosing a cheque for £1,000 in favour of your Institute.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Mr. Becht,

Thank you for your letter. I would like to help as you suggest with Afrikaans material, but am finding it increasingly difficult to get round to all my jobs. I do not write very easily & good articles take me some time to cook up except very occasionally when I am roused.

It is a little difficult to write "just out of the blue" & it would help if v. Wyk, Whyli or yourself - or perhaps a committee of some sort - could suggest themes. If I am asked for a specific article by a specific date then I am the more likely to produce something. Life is a little complicated & I am just about all in.

Some of the D.R.C. Synod discussions & findings (just passed in Cape Town) have made good & welcome reading. Should not the Institute use some of it in the Journal or its News? Some articles could (for Daybreak-Sundaynews, e.g.) be hung round certain of their discussions. It is good policy to show that the Institute agrees with the D.R.C. (It should, of course, be the other way round!)

Let me know if there is anything specific you want done! It might be a good idea to have a simple article or series of articles on psychological adjustments in a rapidly changing environment!

Yrs sincerely,
Oscar Woll

Dear Mr. Loxton,

AUG 6 1956

Thank you for your letter of July 31st. Outspan is a non-political magazine and we do not want our name connected with articles that have a political bearing - other than when we publish them in our own magazine.

Since the copyright in the articles you mention is vested in Mr. Marquard and Professors Olivier and van Eden, I would suggest you obtain their permission to re-print the articles in Thought and Perspektief. I do not want any reference to be made to Outspan when the articles are published in your publication, and I would like your assurance on this point.

With kind regards,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

You recently published articles by Mr. Leo Marquard, president of this Institute, and Mr. Olivier on the subject of apartheid. May we please have your authority to use these, with the usual acknowledgements, in either one or both of two cyclostyled journals of critical comment, Thought and Perspektief, which we publish quarterly?

Yours truly,

Allen Loxton,

Dear Professor Marais,

Thank you for your letter of the 7th instant. My Committee, I know, will regret to learn that you feel you cannot accept office on the consultative committee for Thought and Perspektief.

Your letter leaves me with the impression that you are perhaps not altogether correctly informed about the Institute of Race Relations, its nature and its approach to the racial problems of our country, especially having regard to the basic sympathy between your own expressed views and the Institute's purpose and approach to these problems, and to the many members of your Church, including ministers, who are members of the Institute. I am taking the liberty, therefore, of sending you a small selection of our publications and a printed list of others from which we should be glad to send you, free of charge, any which you may care to mark.

Thank you, too, for so kindly giving us your authority to draw on your printed articles and books.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Loxton,

I am in receipt of your kind letter of 31st July.

I am sorry that my answer must be in the negative and for a very simple reason.

Though I am greatly interested in the Race Problem and hold fairly definite views on it, I am not a "liberal" in any accepted sense of the word. I have always tried to take an "evangelical" approach to the whole "problem" and I hold many views which would just not fit into the generally accepted liberal approach or outlook on this and other problems.

While I must stress this fact I have no objection to the use or distribution of my printed articles or books on condition that they are quoted in the right context - and I have no fear that you will <sup>not</sup> conform to this condition.

Cordially

Dear Mr. Gordon.

Thank you for your letter of 13 August.

I am sorry that I did not explain myself better in my previous letter.

In the Afrikaans version of
"Perspektief" you sub title reads:
"Kwartaalblad oor liberale leuk-
"rights"

with my struggle with the Afrikaans press and even my church or rather many clericalmen I could not serve on the committee of a publication under that heading.
It would be playing into the hands of too many people.
If my views were really "liberal" or "liberalistic" in the

accepted Afrikaans meaning of the word, I would not mind at all. But as my views judged by world trends is fairly conservative I would not willingly accept "liberal"
as a description of my position.
I am however fully aware that your institutes views and my own are often very similar for which I am very thankful.

Dear Mr. Marquard,

I have written to Professors N.J. Olivier and B.I.C. van Eeden for permission to use in THOUGHT and PERSPEKTIEF their article which appeared with yours on apartheid in the Outspan of July 6, 1956. I take it that you will have no objection to our using your article with theirs in PERSPEKTIEF and THOUGHT if authority is given by them. In any case I need material for PERSPEKTIEF and even if they do not agree to the reproduction of their article I would like to use yours on the impracticability of apartheid.

The current cold snap, we hope, has left you with no legacy in the way of a chill.

Yours sincerely,

Allen Loxton,
