Death of Stalin Tragedy for World's Peoples

NEW SOVIET GOVERNMENT CONTINUES HIS PEACE POLICY

THE DEATH OF JOSEPH STALIN AND THE ELECTION OF GEORGI MALEN-KOV TO HEAD THE NEW GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION HAVE BEEN EVENTS OF THE MOST PROFOUND INTERNATIONAL IMPORTANCE, OVERSHADOWING ALL OTHER NEWS OF WORLD AFFAIRS AND PLUNGING THE WHOLE OF THE WESTERN WAR CAMP INTO A FEVER OF EXPECTA-TION AND FEARFUL HOPES.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE LOSS OF STALIN TO THE WORKING CLASS MOVEMENTS OF THE WORLD HAS ONLY BEEN BALANCED BY THE UN-SHAKEABLE SOLIDARITY OF THE PEOPLES OF THE SOVIET UNION AND THEIR ALLIES AND THE TREMENDOUS STIMULUS TO THE CAUSE OF WORLD PEACE GIVEN BY THE FIRST PUBLIC STATEMENTS OF THE NEW

In a mesage to the Soviet Consulate in Pretoria the S.A. Indian Congress states:

"Please convey to the Government and the people of the U.S.S.R. the sincere condolences of the S.A.I.C. on the irreparable of the S.A.I.C. on th

We are confident the leaders of the U.S.S.R. will continue to follow in his footsteps for the preservation of world peace and the betterment of humanity."

The African National Congress message said: "The death of Marshal Stalin will shock many and will be mourned as a great loss throughout the world, particularly by the working class and oppressed colonial peoples. Our sympathies go out to the Russian people whom he has so ably led." he has so ably led."

The president of the Transvaal Indian Congress, Dr. Y. M. Dadoo, has sent the following message to the president of the Supreme Soviet, U.S.S.R.:

"The death of J. V. Stalin has come as a deep shock to the oppressed non-White people of South Africa, who feel his loss no less keenly than the people of the Soviet Union.

"Not only have the heroic Soviet peoples lost the architect of the Soviet Socialist State, but man-knd has lost a very great teacher, an outstanding leader and a devoted servant.

JOHANNESBURG: The S.A. Society for Peace and Friendship with the Soviet Union will hold a memorial meeting on Sunday, March 15 at the Trades Hall at 2 p.m. The Consul-General for the Soviet Union will ettend the meeting.

While the American Govern-ment indulged in the peculiar per-East and West could live peacefully formance of dawn conferences and midnight meetings, discussing what possible advantage could be exploited from the situation, the entire Western Press devoted columns to wild speculation and hopes that the Soviet Govenment would be dislocated by a "struggle for power in the Kremlin."

The death of Stalin removes from world politics a stateman who devoted the last years of his life above all to the defence of peace.

The peace policy of the Soviet Union had been repeatedly stated in the most unequivocal terms by Stalin himself, the last occasion being his Christmas message in which side by side, and agreed to a meeting with President Eisenhower to remove causes of international fric-

Support for Peace

This policy was gaining tremendous political support in the West, President Eisenhower ordered the U.S. propaganda agencies to go out into full action to take the utmost advantage of the alleged "difficulties" in Moscow. With Mr. Eden in Washington to discuss outstanding issues, the U.S. Government seized the opportunity to hasten an agreement bringing Britain closer into line with American war plans, including the blockade of China and the re-militarisation of West Germany.

The death of Stalin removes dous political support in the West, where public demands on both Eisenhower and Churchill to agree to a meeting with Stalin were causing them acute uneasiness. In the past weeks, been supported by a large block of M.P.'s, by national trade unions and many other political bodies. Churchill was sidestepping the issue by referring the matter to Eisenhower and Claiming "Of course, the matter does not wholly rest with me."

The U.S. President, in turn, while bowing to the storm of demands to seek peace with Stalin, and in particular to end the Korean war, agreed to a meeting on certain terms but gave no grounds for hope that it would ever take place.

Soviet Union."

1941 He was elected chairman of the Council of People's Commissars (Prime Minister) in which post he personally directed the de-fence of the Soviet Union against the attack of Hitler and his allies, leading to the Battle of Stalingrad 1942, the greatest single victory in world history, and the final rout of Nazism.

This was the period of the al liance and friendship of all demo-cratic peoples and the founding of the United Nations in which Stalin took a personal part, meeting the Western leaders at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam.

1946 From this year onwards Stalin made his historic series of speeches on Peace addressed to the peoples of the world, aimed at countering the turn towards war taken by the leaders of the United States and Britain.

1945 The first post-war Five-Year Plan of reconstruction launched by Stalin and completed ahead of time.

1950-52 Stalin wrote a number of treatises on theoretical questions, including a study on language and linguistics, and his "Economic Problems of Socialism in the Problems U.S.S.R.
