Moscow ————— 6, October 1926

Dear Mamie,

It seems that you are waiting for a letter from me, and I am waiting for a reply to my letters sent you me through Am. Coats & another by post. I can only hope that by now you have got both.

By your last letter I see that you had not yet received them then.

I am awfully sorry that up till now I have not had the opportunity to visit Linden. Of course as you know I have tried to go, but it would have cost me more than I can find money for. So that I am still seeking some way whereby I could pay my expenses. Regarding New York of course I will agree as soon as I am asked & will let you Know.

Now I hope for the time being you will have sufficient money to pay your bills (that always worries me) and later on I will send you as before periodically.

I think this last quarter, September was the last payment, so that it will be much easier now.

You will only have to pay somewhere about £10- per quarter instead of £40-. and of course all the other bills like rates taxes &c. If you are not sure ask Radomtzeff or Mr. Mathis. Any how for the time being I think you will be free from worry, except of course the necessary things you need for yourself & the children for winter. But in that 11

Respect I am no better off than you are. But still never mind.

I told you already that I saw Vladimir. Geras is going shortly to Canada. Gully is stopping here in Moscow & Mrs. Geras with ~~the~~ the boy are also going with him.

Now I really do not know what else I can say.
I am well, except a little cold.

Will write you again
soon.

Love to all of you
as ever

Dear Mamie,

It seems that you are waiting for a letter from me, and I am waiting for a reply to my letters sent you one through Com. Coats & another by post. I can only hope that by now you have got both. By your last letter I see that you had not yet received them then. I am awfully sorry that up till now I have not had the opportunity to visit London. Of course as you know I have tried to go, but it would have cost me more than I can find money for. So that I am still seeking some way whereby I could pay my expenses. Regarding New York of course I will agree as soon as I am asked & will let you know.

Now I hope for the time being you will have sufficient money to pay your bills (that always worries me) and later on I will send you as before periodically.

I think this last quarter September was the last payment, so that it will be much easier now. You will only have to pay somewhere about £10- per quarter instead of £40- and of course all the other bills like rates taxes &c. If you are not sure ask Kadomtzeff or Mr. Mather. Any how for the time being I think you will be free from worry, except of course the necessary things you need for yourself & the children for winter. But in that respect I am no better off than you are. But still never mind.

I told you already that I saw Neadimiroff. Gerus is going shortly to Canada. Gully is stopping here in Moscow & Mrs. Gerus with the boy are also going with him.

Now I really do not know what else I can say.

I am well, except a little cold.

Will write you again soon.

Love to all of you

as ever Sam
