

P.O. Box 1138,
JOHANNESBURG.

8th October, 1965.

Dear Eulalie,

Mrs Sobukwe will be arriving in Cape Town on about January 1, 1966, in order to visit her husband. I have asked her to make a point of contacting you when she gets there in case you wish to see her about anything.

In the event of her requiring any cash or whatever it may be, could you perhaps also assist her? I am providing her with funds for the trip but am concerned lest she run short. If you do have to lay out any money, please let me know and I shall refund it.

I hope you will not mind my burdening you with this. I am writing to you early as I shall be away from Johannesburg a great deal in the next month or so and I don't want to forget to ask you for this help.

Hope you are keeping well.

Sincerely,
