A 213

AFRICAN NATIONAL CONGRESS.

26 Barkly Arcade,
Market St.,
JOHANNESBURG.

8th July, 1954.

PRESS STATEMENT.

In view of the recent police raids at mass meetings and conferences it has been decided to approach various leading Johannesburg citizens, barristers, clergymen, and university professors amongst them; and representatives of the local and overseas press, to be present at future gatherings in the role of impartial observers.

On Sunday 11th July there is to be a mass meeting of the African National Congress (Transvaal) in Sophiatown to welcome the President - General, Chief Lutuli, and a number of prominent members of the community have signified their intention to be present to witness any possible action on the part of the police.
