Dear Cousin

I thank you very much for your letter Cousin. I had given up hope that you were not going to answer me ~~any~~ for ~~some~~ weeks & weeks had passed away and nothing came. Re the Dr's application to the Hos. board, I have to-day just seen in the Star - fancy a week after its publication - re ko morago ruri - that the said so called board has refused the application on conditions very vague - the nurses won't apply & work in the Hospital just because the Dr will be in attendance. Let us pray - well put it that way - that the Administrator will be fair and reasonable. Fancy the Hospital was not closed the last 5 years or so - the Dr being working there - A sheer nonsensical excuse - God bless the Africans! - I see Dr Murchin & his friend are worth living in this world - what of the rest? Jackson & All the — — of them? Please let me know as soon as possible the administrative decision. ~~For~~ ~~the~~ ~~whole~~ ~~thing~~ ~~is~~ - the authorities but will only pass them to us were their waste paper baskets to make place for or room for a new lot or so.

I am very sorry to see how the Dr is inconvenienced
