Dear Mamma.

I received your letter of the 30th ult. and am very glad that Geras called, & you had a chat with them. We very often were together and they knew very well how things are, and so could convey every detail to you.

You probably by now have seen Kerran, and have also got my last letter. I hope you will be able to arrange matters for a time.

Do not bother Krossin, what was necessary I already did myself and you will not improve by bothering him. He really should not be worried with matters of this kind.

Geras promised to see him personally and speak to him about the matters. Do not worry about the debts. They will be paid in time. There are not so many of them,

and besides I helped those people in the past.
Let me know if you have not got a position
yet. and I will endeavor to ~~to~~ get me for Jan. by other means. Mr. Kado mtzoff will give you £10- which I gave her to Carlhoff for Kado mtzoff's brother. I do not quite understand your meaning about uneasiness
regarding Arlo's letters, to whom?
Now do not bother about sending me anything.
Of course when I asked you for some of those things, matters were normal, but now you have no money and I can very well do without those small things. I have still got more than most others. Have you received the Slippers for Olga? and does she like them. If they are not big enough, let Hilda have them.

and Olga will get hers next time when an opportunity arises.

Now I have nothing more to say.

Yesterday was "the Great day" our holiday,
the 7th of November. The demonstration & parade was Grand, notwithstanding the bad weather.

The Songs, music, marching of thousands
upon thousands, with banners & signs,
all that gladdens one's heart.

I am keeping well & trying hard.

Love
Sans

There are not so many of them, and besides I helped those people in the past. Let me know if you have not got a position yet and I will endeavour to get one for you by other means. Mr. Kadomtzeff will give you £10- which I gave here to Arloff for Kadomtzeff's brother. I do not quite understand your meaning about uneasiness regarding Arlof's letters. To whom?

Now do not bother about sending me anything. Of course when I asked you for some of those things, matters were normal, but now you have no money and I can very well do without those small things. I am keeping well & trying hard.
