CAPE TOWN. — Mr. Robert Sobukwe, leader of the banned Pan Africanist Congress, was admitted to Groote Schuur Hospital yesterday for a check-up.

A hospital spokesman said Mr Sobukwe was undergoing several tests and his condition appeared to be satisfactory.

Mr Sobukwe, who is banned and restricted to Kimberley, flew to Cape Town on Monday after obtaining permission to stay at a friend's home for three nights before going to hospital.

He must return home on the first available train or aircraft after he is discharged from hospital.

The hospital spokesman could not say how long Mr Sobukwe will be kept there.
