

4 September 1982

Dear Benjamin,

I'm delighted that Steve decided to print your sensitive remarks at Bob's unveiling. Were they ever run in full in S. Africa, where they should be? I read them this morning, after Steve sent me a copy to our home in the mountains, and was very moved. I cannot imagine a better friend or a better-handled memorial speech.

I've also just finished reading Store up the Anger. Brilliant, brutal, lucid in its portrayal of evil.

Is there anything positive to report since our last conversations?

With warmest wishes to Anne,

Yours,
