

13th. August, 1947.

Miss Aaliya B. Allman,
667, East 165 Street,
Bronx 56,
NEW YORK.

Dear Miss Allman,

I have your circular letter addressed to me in your capacity as Assistant Secretary General of the Universal African Nationalist Movement. That my name was proposed to you by Mr. George Campbell.

I may state that I was a great admirer of the Garvey Movement. I read the Negro World. Here in South Africa I have had some trying experiences as Organising Secretary of the Industrial and Commercial Workers Union, and as Provincial President of the African National Congress. I am also a member of the Advisory Councils of the Union Government and Durban Corporation elected by my African toilers. I am a great admirer of the word Nationalist being one myself. One wonders what contribution one can make to the Movement located in America.

I shall be grateful to you if you will give me more information and suggestions for my guidance in this task of our lifetime to fight for the liberation of our African Race.

Yours sincerely,

Collection Number: A922

Allison Wessels George CHAMPION Papers, 1925-1959

PUBLISHER:

Publisher:- Historical Papers Research Archive

Location:- Johannesburg

©2013

LEGAL NOTICES:

Copyright Notice: All materials on the Historical Papers website are protected by South African copyright law and may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, displayed, or otherwise published in any format, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Disclaimer and Terms of Use: Provided that you maintain all copyright and other notices contained therein, you may download material (one machine readable copy and one print copy per page) for your personal and/or educational non-commercial use only.

People using these records relating to the archives of Historical Papers, The Library, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, are reminded that such records sometimes contain material which is uncorroborated, inaccurate, distorted or untrue. While these digital records are true facsimiles of paper documents and the information contained herein is obtained from sources believed to be accurate and reliable, Historical Papers, University of the Witwatersrand has not independently verified their content. Consequently, the University is not responsible for any errors or omissions and excludes any and all liability for any errors in or omissions from the information on the website or any related information on third party websites accessible from this website.

This document is part of a collection held at the Historical Papers Research Archive at The University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.