1. Report from: Anti-PC

To: WDF (Trvl)

The Anti-PC continued work on a number of projects. Amongst other we continued with

1. The setting-up and strengthening of local committees in various areas
2. Plans for Riverlea meeting on 23/10/83 against reform proposals proceeding well - pamphlets are being printed and shall be distributed this week; a poster workshop held; successful house meetings held; WDF (Trvl) Vice-President Rev F. Chikane will address the meeting and the WDF will be popularised.
3. Agreed to make a minimum contribution of R300 immediately to WDF and hope to increase this to R500 when circumstances permit
4. All local committees will engage in fundraising to support our projects and also help fund WDF. A braai is being held in Bismart today 10/10/83
5. Distributed Speech and WDF News.
6. Shall distribute WDF News before Peoples Weekend; put up posters, and advertise the meeting and act as marshalls as required
7. Agreed two members assist WDF Media Committee and one member to work on Distribution Committee
