Mr. Rautenbach,
Room 8,
404 Main Road,
JOHANNESBURG.

Dear Mr. Rautenbach,

Further to our conversation this morning, this serves to introduce Mrs. Mono and her son, Petrus. Mrs. Mono states she has been a resident of Kliptown since 1948, when she joined her husband, who has been employed by the Kliptown Wholesalers for about 10 years. She could not get her son, Petrus, into the local school, so sent him to school in Grasmere. He spent his holidays in Kliptown.

Petrus, who is 17, left school at the end of 1954 and is now living permanently with his family.

He obtained employment in February of this year, but could not get permission to take this work.

He is anxious to obtain employment in Johannesburg and we hope you will be able to assist him.

Yours sincerely,

K. Glynn (Miss)

Dear Sir,

re: Lengole Ernest Mokwena

Bearer ~~who~~ has been in Johannesburg since 1932 and during this entire period has been in employment. In January 1955 he was obliged to give up work owing to ill-health. He had to do plastering for a firm of building contractors and developed swollen feet. After giving up his work in order to seek more suitable employment for his condition of health, he reported immediately at the Pass Office. This was on the 7th of January, just a day after his discharge, but to his surprise was ordered to leave Johannesburg immediately. He was given no explanation whatsoever.

Since this date this man has been seeking advice about his position and was advised only yesterday to seek our assistance.

Unless the officials concerned have a valid reason for their action, it does seem that this man has been unfairly treated, consequently I refer him to you and shall be glad if you will review his case.

Yours faithfully,

W. B. Ngakane,
FIELD OFFICER.

Dear Mr. Magaba,

It is so difficult to contact you on the 'phone that I am obliged to write and address your letter to Springs despite the fact that you are in Johannesburg daily.

I have at last been able to contact Miss Meintjes about the contacts she undertook to find for you in connection with your art-training.

I should be very glad if you would come and see me immediately you receive this letter. I have something to tell you about the arrangements she is making on your behalf.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully,
