

Moscow, 5. Dec. 1925

Darling Hilda:

I received a letter from Mammie today in which she tells me that you had some snow in London, & you with Joan were playing snow-balling. Well I am glad, because here in Moscow we have had snow this last month, & it keeps because it is dry & frosty so the snow does not thaw. I often wish you were here so you could skate on the ice as many children & grown ups too do, even in some streets.

You can not help it as it is so slippery in the streets.

Than you ought to see the sledges.

Well you would like them I am sure. I often go to work in a Sledge when I am in a hurry & can not get on the tram. Doesn't that make you envious he?

Oh but it is cold at times & when I have no gloves, mama promised to send me some warm gloves, but half the winter will have gone before I will get them.

Don't give the other letters to mama. I hope you are all well & you do not miss me.

Kiss Vera & Olga for me
