~~Text~~

"I knew that we were not going to get sufficient support from the people. I was aware, as in the mind of Prof & text, we were aware - Prof we counted that we'd be supported - but I and I was committed & I can't go back. - I was completely hesitant about launching this because to me we had not gained enough support.

The ed. was unanimous but it was a question of not enough space would have been made if this was a right direction. It was a question of time. The article was good, we all agreed unanimously on the article, but the time was too short.

The people who went round the country were few & Lobbs & a few others & they returned us to the country was behind us. But I was judgy, from Masold's ^{where they} ~~pro~~ ^{views}, I realized a sufficient following, and if I felt it where we stay, where at least stays, we would not get sufficient support on this matter, how much more outside, from places where we don't have a man like Tobuine.

But when I woke up in the am I sd some what may, we are going to create but say. It doesn't matter what it paid is: we are going to read it but say it has attempted to do so only about a struggle.

Those days pop were my tube station. We sd see pop streaming up ^{from} from Napoli, all going to tube station, despite our call.

[Get off from Ad's home at about 6:30 am.]

We were quiet & very silent - there was no discussion between us - we were just looking at what the pop were doing despite our call - 8

Keop ignored the call. B. did not make any attempt. all he did on way was: 'Aoy, we are meeting butsey'.

When we got to his house he greeted us with big smile of his & i'afika. Then we returned "i'we lehu" I he fd him ready & left immediately.

We went to Thabulo's shop & bought ^{my} paper, three
- & ^{paper} & ^{wood} - I bought paper - including map - we looked at it front page. At there was a front - page story - it was at the pt he rd. 'Aoy, we are meeting butsey.'

(No one else was there).
Came to look this to get there.]

When I got to Hotel Stabia, at 10 of us (I joined an unit).
We found a whole group already there: frames of sets forwards: Orlando East pop-already supplied in coffee-gals from the H.C. from home, nearly had some in coffee. They were wading outside it place. Greeted each other - I've left.

We were waiting for pop to come in - but when others were coming from the as 200, suddenly they did come: also to 200.

We were all outside, a few of us went in. A lot of them were there, in groups.

Prof. Laballe & a few others went in to go & want blankets. They sd, we are here you know on he told them to wait outside, you'd be attended to.

We waited for a very long time. We sat on grass.

They arrived us after Harwood - in a afternoon - had no lunch - ~~was~~ a special thank you Ngeay Ngeai, he is now in Tranhei - ~~he came to~~ while we were there, we heard about it & about - all we heard was there was about in Harwood, people dead, & we started pausing about & no of people who are dead.

Prof. expected anything

Ngrai & 2 w/ appeared arrived. They went in & had a short meeting. After the they came out w/ a list of names.
They stood on the side wall of the plane, under the police station.
We were sitting outside the plane.
We took names down.
Here ^{a face man in plainclothes} ~~the~~ read this page of page - Subjektiv "Robert. Kaputka" was a bit name. "Cepallo, left Katholeng, Lennon, Olsuri, Barrett Nziba, J. D. Nyasa. He took about 10 of us were read out from the list.

"Wd you all come in"
Went into the charge office.
Told us we were under arrest. white policemen stand w/ guns.
"What's the charge?"
"Imprisonment."

We have left our papers out home. We want to be arrested.

Particulars were taken down. The other papers were left outside. They were told to go home. They refused. They said we want to be in they id "If you want us to go home then what are you doing in our leaders, we want to be where our leaders are. We have come to be arrested."

We id her, "shut hulle toe." (Lock them up).

That was a grant seat.
to a Haute Commission; we were taken to

We were taken to Raulall square in private cars: - 2 or 3 to a reserved escort in security formation.

Corbed up, not quite a supper - no tea or coffee.

Following day joined by Madgunga & 2 pop from Alec.

Have us partridge & t moung, & an faw, well there w meals.

We got news that day: Reaction when our news about Sharpeville: "It was thrilling. We were very happy about it, because it is exactly what we were aiming at:
creating history."

Songs beg sung i t all, t night before.

~~WINE~~ ~~INT.~~

We are very glad to say we has been taken by t white. for do. to do w pass.

Mr Anthony Lewis,

Dear Tony,

You will, I am sure, know the name of John Bidwell. Apart from being mutual friends he is the judge who gave such outstanding testimony to the Hoexter Committee last year about the ^{whole} standard of justice in racial affairs.

John and his wife, Sam, are due to visit Boston early in October and are keen to meet you. Please this letter: I have no doubt you would enjoy meeting both of them.
