Dear Richard,

Thank you for your letter. It is always encouraging to hear from people who have recently become interested in the work of ECC, and particularly when those people are conscripts themselves.

You have asked to become involved in ECC at a very exciting time because there is a great deal happening at the moment. ECC is in the middle of a "War is no Solution" campaign and it would be super if you could come to some of the things that are being held.

- Wed 26 Nov. 8pm in the ECC office (1st Floor, Rhodes View, 435 Main Rd, Observatory). Meeting specifically for people who want to begin getting involved in ECC, to discuss how they can get involved in the campaign.
- Thurs. 27 Nov. at 7pm at the Rondebosch Congregational Church (Belmont Rd). The ECC AGM. This will be a very good opportunity to see what ECC has been doing over the last year.
- Sat. 29 Nov. at 2pm. There will be t-shirt screening, again specifically to include people who are new to ECC.
- Sunday 30 Nov. at 11am, there will be, a peace picnic in the gardens of Bishops court.
- Wed 3 Dec. at 8pm there is an ECC rally in the City Hall.

I am in the office every day between 12 - 2 pm, so please phone me if you need more details or information.

I do hope to hear from you or to meet you soon.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir/Madam,

The End Conscription Campaign is hosting an anti-war film festival from the 1st to the 5th of December. The festival is part of the E.C.C.'s "War is no Solution" campaign and will be held in the Robert Leslie 2D Theatre on UCT campus. The screenings will start at 2 pm and will last for about an hour and a half; admission is free.

Included in the film festival will be films from the Cape Town Municipal Library's War series. The first film (on Monday the 1st) is entitled "The road to total war". This film examines the history of war, the first and second World Wars and the threat of global nuclear war. During the week other films from the series will be screened. Further details of these films may be obtained by phoning the E.C.C. office at 479170 between 12 and 2 pm daily.

We extend an invitation to the staff and pupils of your school to attend the screenings of this highly acclaimed series and request that you inform your classes of the film festival.

Yours sincerely

Mandy Taylor
ECC Office Worker
